

Heart Words

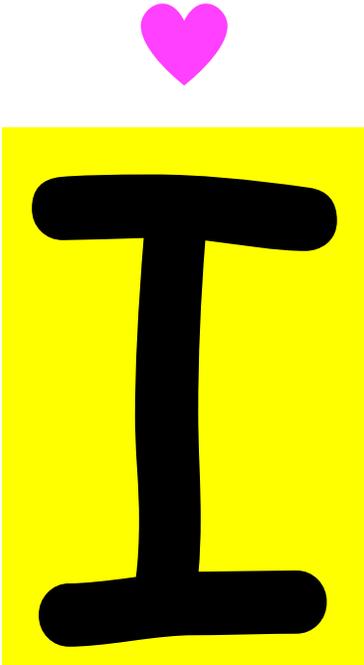

This is the word 'I'.

"I am five years old"

I is spelt with the letter I.

It is a capital letter.

This is the word 'is'.

“Here is my hat?”

'Is' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (i) (z)

The letter 's' on the end is making the sound (z).

i is

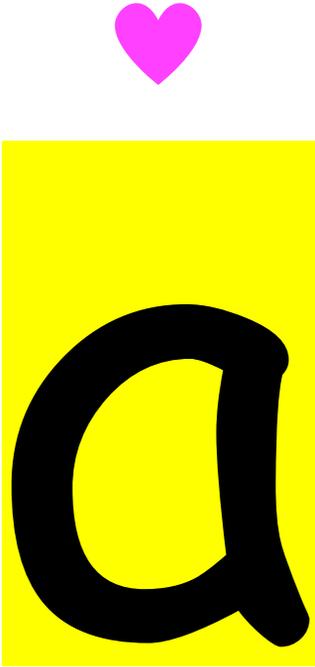

This is the word 'a'.

"A puppy is licking me!"

'a' is spelt with the letter a.

Sometimes we say (ā) and sometimes we say (uh) when we read this word.

This is the word 'the'.

"The bird is in its nest."

'The' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (th) (ē)

The letters 'th' spell the sound (th).

The 'e' at the end can sometimes say (ē) and sometimes say (uh).

the

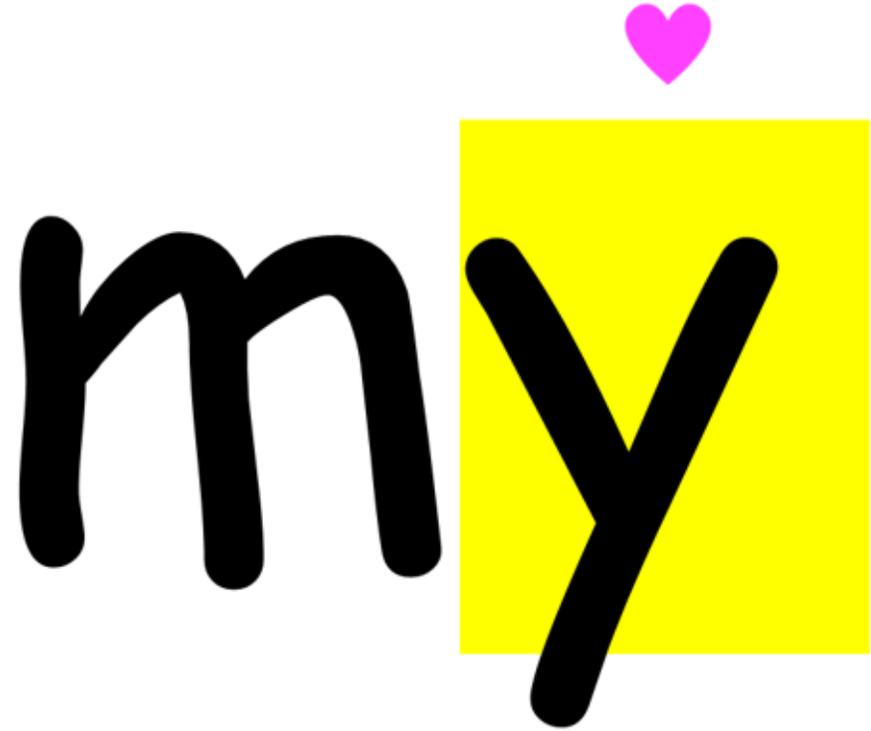

This is the word 'my'.

"My kitten is so cute!"

'My' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (m) (ī)

The letter 'y' at the end makes the sound (ī).

my my

This is the word 'of'.

The opposite of up is down.

'Of' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ɒ) (v)

The letter 'f' at the end makes the sound (v).

o f

This is the word 'give'.

“Can you give the ball back,
please?”

'Give' has 3 phonemes.

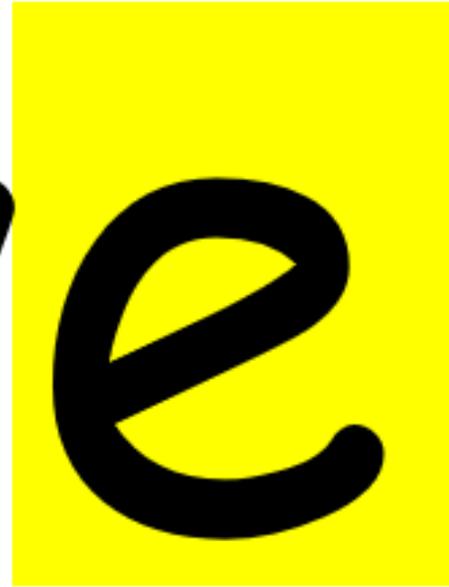

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (i) (v)

The letter 'e' is at the end because we never end a word with 'v', we always use 've'.

give

give

This is the word 'have'.

"Have you got your seatbelt on?"

'Have' has 3 phonemes.

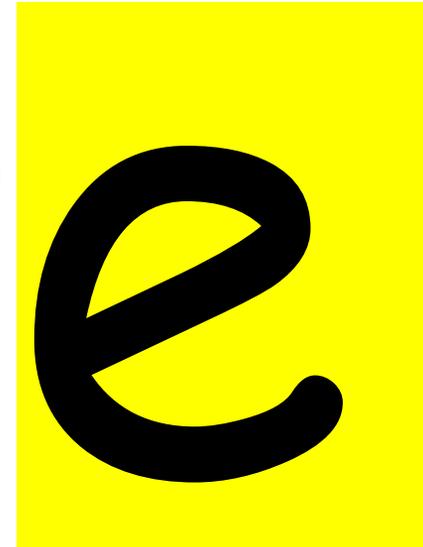

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (ă) (v)

The letter 'e' is at the end because we never end a word with 'v', we always use 've'.

have

have

This is the word 'his'.

It is his turn to jump.

'His' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (i) (z)

The 's' on the end makes the sound (z).

his

his

This is the word 'has'.

Ben has a bad cold.

'Has' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (ă) (z)

The 's' on the end makes the sound (z).

has

has

This is the word 'he'.

He was feeling unwell.

'He' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (ē)

The letter 'e' at the end makes the sound (ē).

he

he

This is the word 'we'.

We are going on a holiday.

'We' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ē)

The letter 'e' at the end makes the sound (ē).

w e

This is the word 'me'.

"Can you show me how to do this?"

'Me' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (m) (ē)

The letter 'e' at the end makes the sound (ē).

me

me

This is the word 'she'.

I love it when she smiles!

'She' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (sh) (ē)

The letters 'sh' spell the sound (sh).

The letter 'e' at the end makes the sound (ē).

she

she

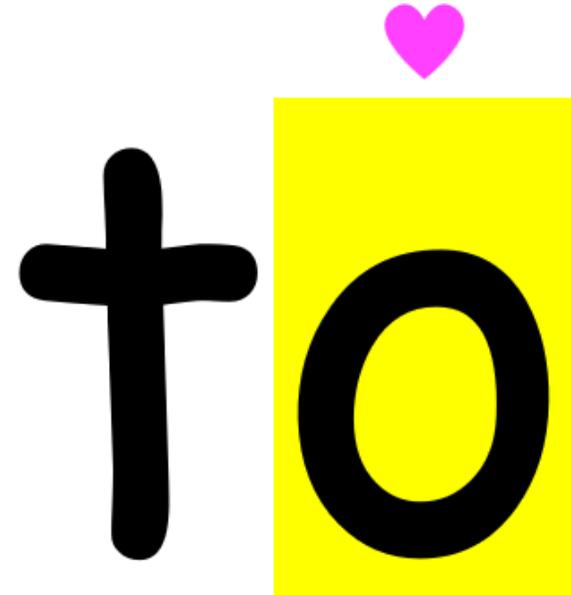

This is the word 'to'.

Grandma went to the shops.

'To' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (t) (oo)

The letter 'o' at the end makes the sound (oo).

to

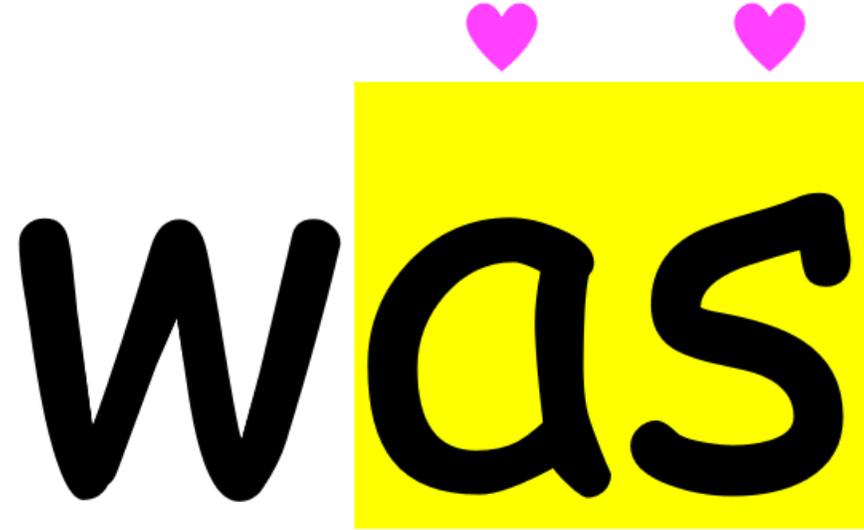

This is the word 'was'.

There was a snake in the grass.

'Was' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ǒ) (z)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (ǒ), and the letter 's' makes the sound (z).

was

w a s

This is the word 'for'.

"I am having spaghetti for dinner."

'For' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (or)

The letters 'or' together make the sound (or).

f or

f for

This is the word 'see'.

"Can you see the bright star?"

'See' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (ē)

The two 'e's together make the sound (ē).

see

This is the word 'are'.

"The sheep are in the field."

'Are' has one phoneme.

The phoneme is (ah).

The letters 'are' together make the sound (ar).

are

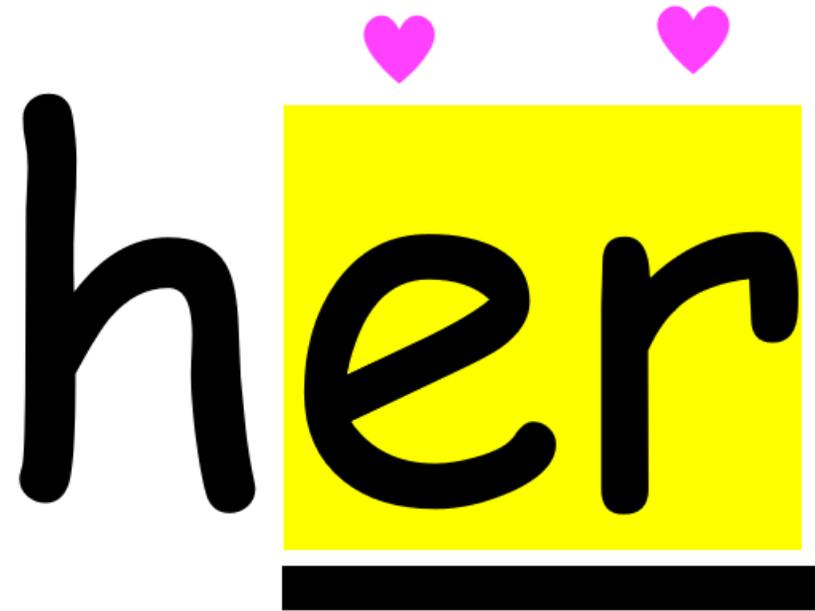

This is the word 'her'.

Penny hurt her knee when she fell over.

'Her' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (er)

The letters 'er' at the end together make the sound (er).

her

her

“There are too many toys.”
“I want to go too.”

‘Too’ has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (t) (oo)

The two ‘o’s together make the sound (oo).

This is the word 'two'.

"My two best friends are twins."

'Two' is a homophone.

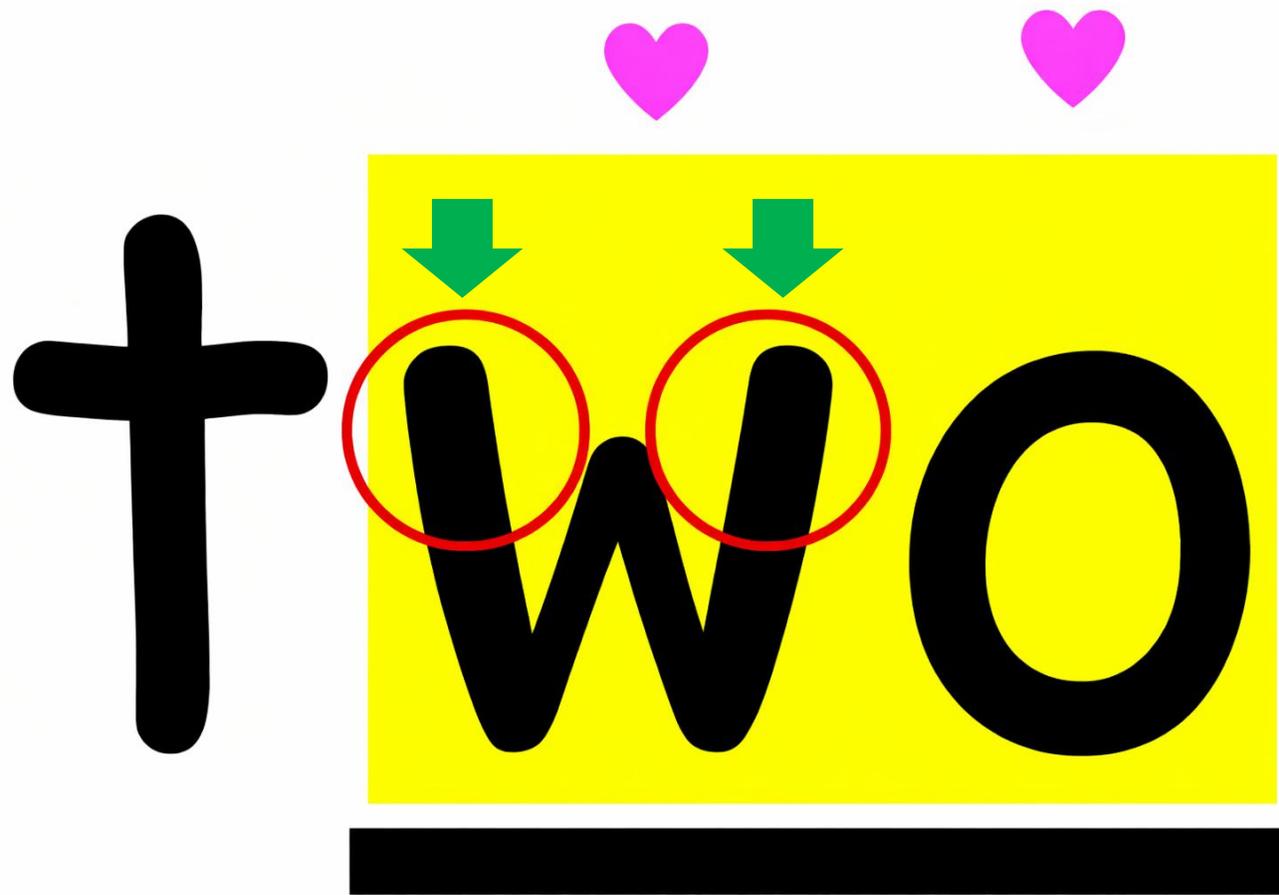

It means the number 2. Hold up two fingers.

It is related to the word twins (two babies).

You have already learnt the other words 'to' and 'too'.

two

to too

This is the word 'little'.

The pony looked little next to the horse.

'Little' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: lit / tle

The second syllable is spelt 't' 'l' 'e'.

little

l i t t l e

This is the word 'no'.

"There are no lollies left."

'No' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (n) (ō)

The letter 'o' at the end makes the sound (ō).

no

no

This is the word 'said'.

“Let's go to the beach!”
said Dad.

'Said' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (ě) (d)

The letters 'ai' in the middle together make the sound (ě).

said

said

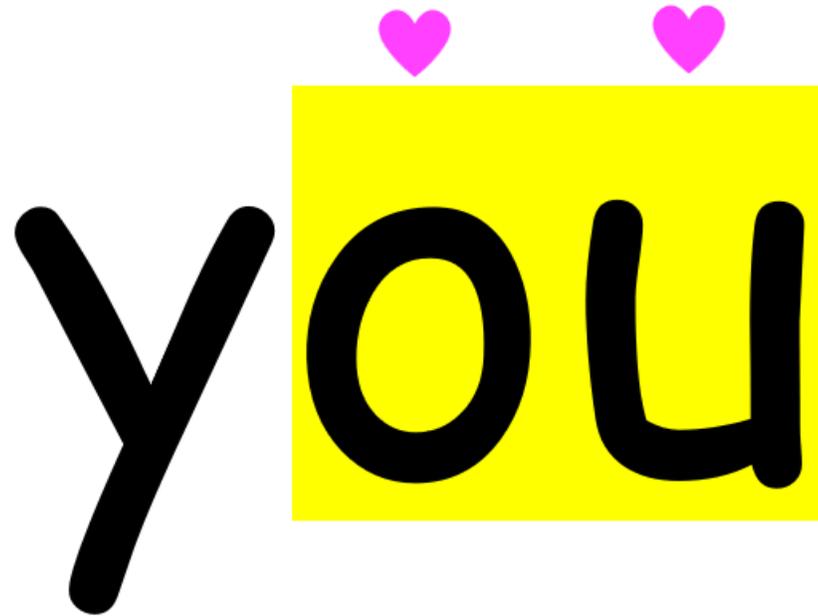

This is the word 'you'.

You go to school to learn.

'You' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (y) (oo)

The letters 'ou' at the end together make the sound (oo).

you

This is the word 'down'.

Jack and Jill ran down the hill.

'Down' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (d) (ow) (n)

The letters 'ow' in the middle together make the sound (ow).

down

d o w n

This is the word 'very'.

I love my family very much.

'Very' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (v) (ɛ) (r) (ē)

The letter 'y' at the end makes the sound (ē).

very

very

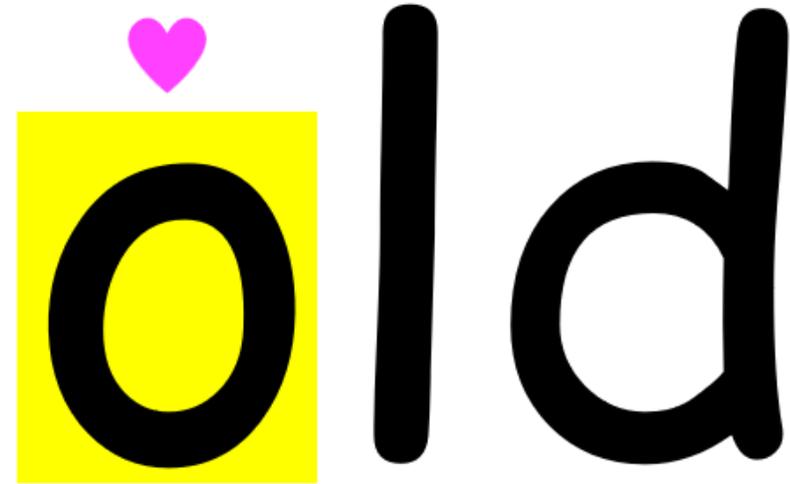

This is the word 'old'.

The coat was old and smelly.

'Old' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ō) (l) (d)

The letter 'o' at the start makes the sound (ō).

old

This is the word 'cold'.

It is a cold and rainy day.

'Cold' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (ɔ) (l) (d)

The letter 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ɔ).

cold

cold

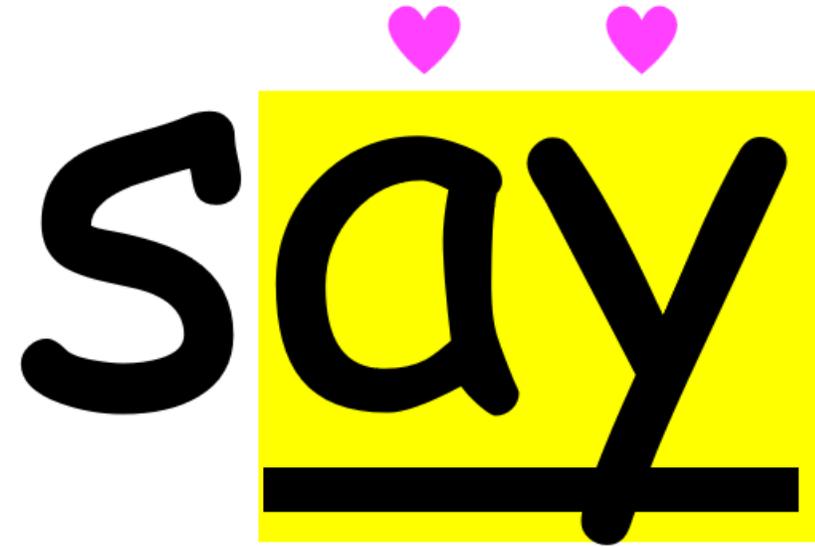

This is the word 'say'.

Can you say the alphabet from A to Z?

'Say' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (ā)

The letters 'ay' at the end together
make the sound (ā).

say

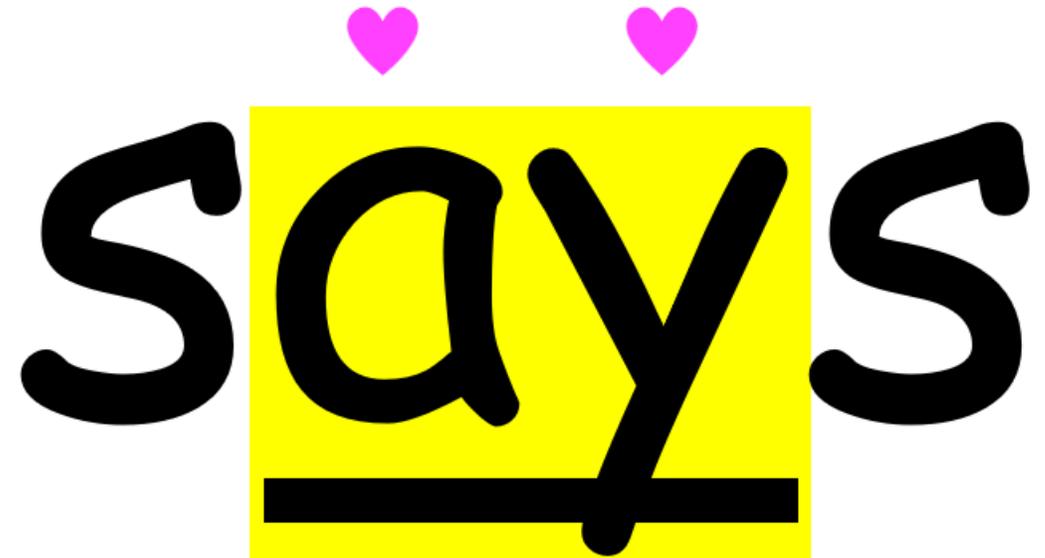

This is the word 'says'.

"The teacher says it is my turn to be the leader."

'Says' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (ě) (z)

The letters 'ay' in the middle together make the sound (ě).

says

s ays s

This is the word 'do'.

I do my best at school.
Do you want to play?

'Do' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(d) (oo)

The letter 'o' at the end makes the sound (oo).

do

This is the word 'does'.

"He does not want my help."

'Does' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (d) (ŭ) (z)

The letters 'oe' in the middle make the sound (ŭ).

does

does

This is the word 'they'.

Dogs bark, and they
chase balls.

'They' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (th) (ā)

The letters 'ey' at the end together
make the sound (ā).

they

they

This is the word 'love'.

"I love my goldfish."

'Love' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (l) (ŭ) (v)

The letter 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ŭ).

The word "love" is written in a large, black, rounded font. The letter 'o' is highlighted with a yellow square background. A small pink heart is positioned above the 'o'. A thick black horizontal line is drawn below the entire word.

love

This is the word 'some'.

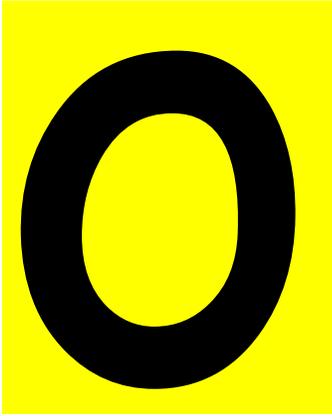

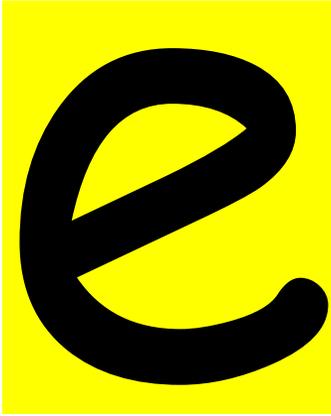

Some of the apples are red,
and some are green.

'Some' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (ʊ) (m)

The letters 'o' in the middle and 'e' at the end together make the sound (ʊ).

some

s  o  m  e

This is the word 'come'.

Will you come to my party?

'Come' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (ŭ) (m)

The letters 'o' in the middle and 'e' at the end together make the sound (ŭ).

come

c o m e

This is the word 'done'.

When I have done my work,
I can go and play.

'Done' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (d) (ŏ) (n)

The letters 'o' in the middle and 'e' at the end together make the sound (ŏ).

done

done

This is the word 'again'.

I read my book again and again!

'Again' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ǔ) (g) (ě) (n)

The letter 'a' at the beginning makes the sound (ǔ).

The 'ai' in the middle together make the sound (ě) .

a g a i n

This is the word 'what'.

"What is the time?"

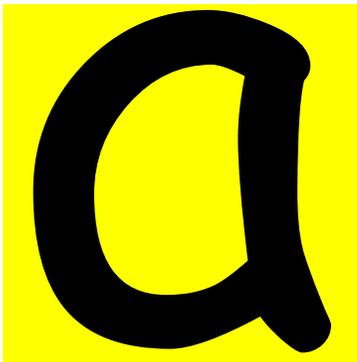

'What' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ə) (t)

The letter 'a' in the middle makes the sound (ə).

what

what

This is the word 'who'.

"Who won the soccer match?"

'Who' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (oo)

The letter 'o' at the end makes the sound (oo).

who

This is the word 'where'.

"Where do you live?"

'Where' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (air)

The letters 'ere' at the end together make the sound (air).

where

where

This is the word 'there'.

There are apples on the tree.
It is over there.

'There' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (th) (air)

The letters 'ere' at the end together make the sound (air).

there

there

This is the word 'your'.

It is your turn after me.

'Your' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (y) (or)

The letters 'our' at the end together make the sound (or).

your

y your

This is the word 'goes'.

There goes the school bell.

'Goes' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (ō) (z)

The letters 'oe' in the middle make the sound (ō).

goes

g oo es

The word "goes" is written in a black, cursive-style font. The two 'o's are highlighted by a bright yellow rectangular background. Above each 'o' is a small, solid pink heart.

This is the word 'one'.

I have one brother and one sister.

'One' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ŭ) (n)

This is a tricky word because it is an Old English word.

one

This is the word 'won'.

Arlo won the cutest puppy competition.

'Won' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ŭ) (n)

The letter 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ŭ).

'Won' sounds just like the word 'one'.

It is spelt very differently!

won

won

This is the word 'four'.

There are four people in my family.

'Four' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (or)

The letters 'our' at the end together make the sound (or).

f four

f four

This is the word 'eight'.

An octopus has eight legs.

'Eight' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ā) (t)

The letters 'eigh' together make the sound (ā).

eigh t

This is the word 'want'.

If you want to draw, you will need a pencil.

'Want' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ɔ) (n) (t)

The letter 'a' in the middle makes the sound (ɔ).

want

want

This is the word 'blue'.

The sky is blue today.

'Blue' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:(b) (l) (oo)

The letters 'ue' at the end make the sound (oo).

blue

blue

Heart Words

This is the word 'all'.

All of the class were listening to the teacher.

'All' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (or) (l)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (or) and the two 'l's make the sound (l), just like
in the FLOSS rule.

all

This is the word 'put'.

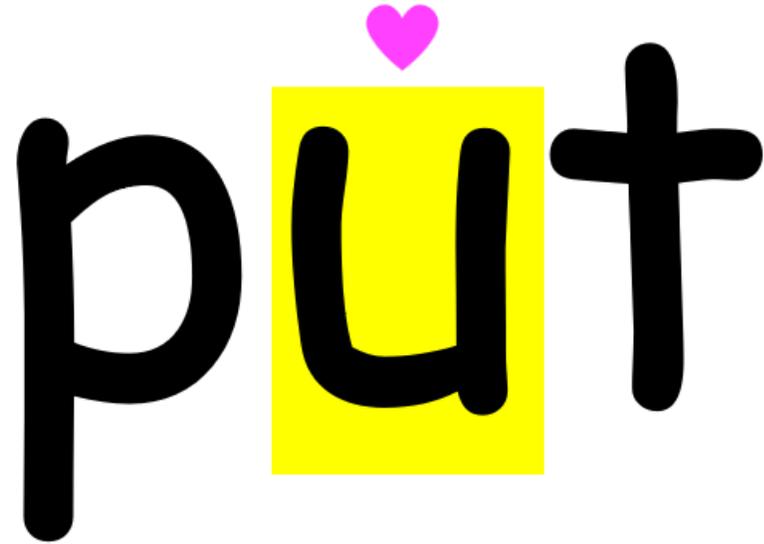

Put your rubbish in the bin.

'Put' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(p) (oo) (t)

The letter 'u' makes the sound (oo).

put

p u t

This is the word 'push'.

Push the button to open the door.

'Push' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(p) (oo) (sh)

The letter 'u' makes the sound (oo).

push

push

This is the word 'once'.

It happened once and never again.

'Once' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ŭ) (n) (s)

The letter 'o' makes the sound (ŭ).

The letters 'ce' together make the sound (s).

Once is related to the word 'one'.

once

once

This is the word 'only'.

It happened only once and never again.

'Only' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ō) (n) (l) (ē)

The letter 'o' makes the sound (ō).

The letter 'y' makes the sound (ē).

Only is related to the word 'one'.

only

only

This is the word 'pull'.

You pull on the reins to stop a horse.

'Pull' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (p) (oo) (l)

The letter 'u' makes the sound (oo) and
the two 'l's make the sound (l), just like
in the FLOSS rule.

pull

pull

This is the word 'full'.

I stop eating when I am full.

'Full' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (oo) (l)

The letter 'u' makes the sound (oo) and the two 'l's make the sound (l), just like in the FLOSS rule.

full

full

This is the word 'any'.

Are there any pigs in the pen?

'Any' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ə) (n) (ē)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (ə) and the letter 'y' makes the sound (ē).

any

This is the word 'many'.

There were many books on the shelf.

'Many' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (m) (ə) (n) (ē)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (ə) and
the letter 'y' makes the sound (ē).

many

many

This is the word 'gone'.

I had one and then it was gone!

'Gone' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (ŏ) (n)

'Gone' is related to the word 'one'.

gone

gone

This is the word 'none'.

I wanted one apple, but none were left!

'None' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (n) (ŏ) (n)

'None' is also related to the word 'one', just like 'gone'.

nōne

n  o  n  e

This is the word 'could'.

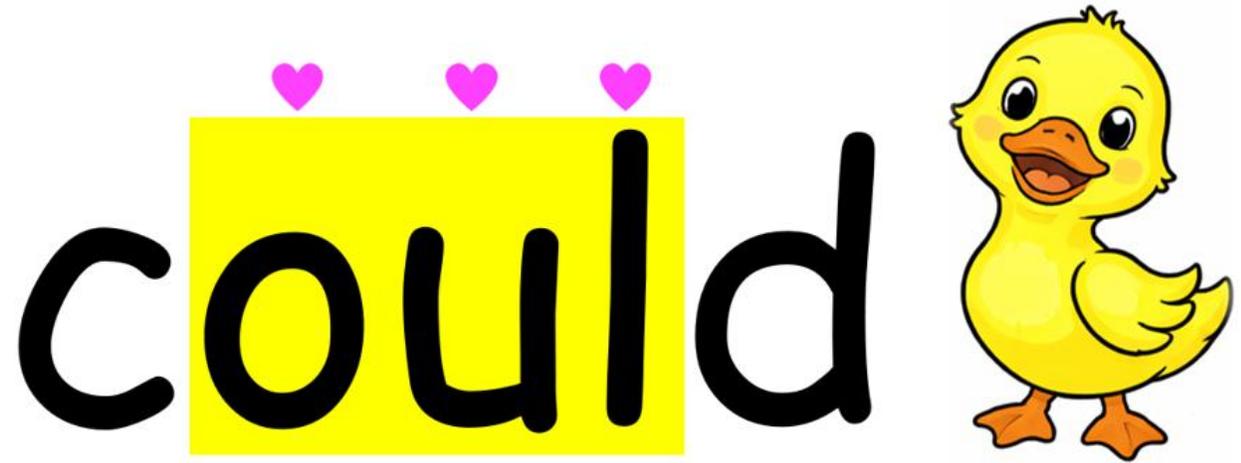

Could you help me please?

'Could' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (oo) (d)

We can remember this tricky spelling by using the duck to help us. Let's say:

"Oh, you lucky ducky!"

couldd

“Oh, you lucky duck!”

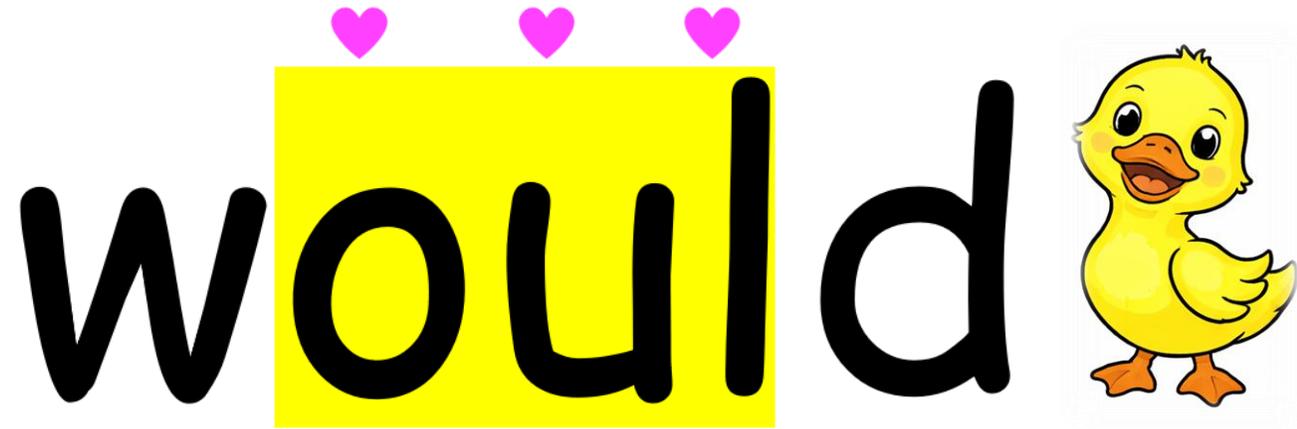

This is the word 'would'.

I would walk to school if I lived closer.

'Would' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (oo) (d)

We can remember this tricky spelling by using the duck to help us. Let's say:
"Oh, you lucky ducky!"

would

“Oh, you lucky duck!”

This is the word 'should'.

Beds should be made each morning.

'Should' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (sh) (oo) (d)

We can remember this tricky spelling by using the duck to help us. Let's say:

"Oh, you lucky ducky!"

shouldd

“Oh, you lucky duck!”

This is the word 'shoe'.

“There is a rock in my shoe, ouch!”

'Shoe' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (sh) (ōō)

The letters 'oe' make the sound (ōō).

shoe

shoe

This is the word 'saw'.

We saw the penguins at the zoo.

'Saw' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (s) (or)

The letters 'aw' together make the sound (or).

saw

Saw

This is the word 'sew'.

I am learning to sew buttons onto my shirt.

'Sew' is a homophone. It means to use a needle and thread to join fabric together.

The other spelling is 'so' which means as a result: 'My knee hurt, so I stopped walking'.

It also means 'very': 'The picture was so beautiful.'

This is the word 'egg'.

The chicken laid an egg.

'Egg' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ě) (g)

There are two 'g's making the sound (g).

e gg

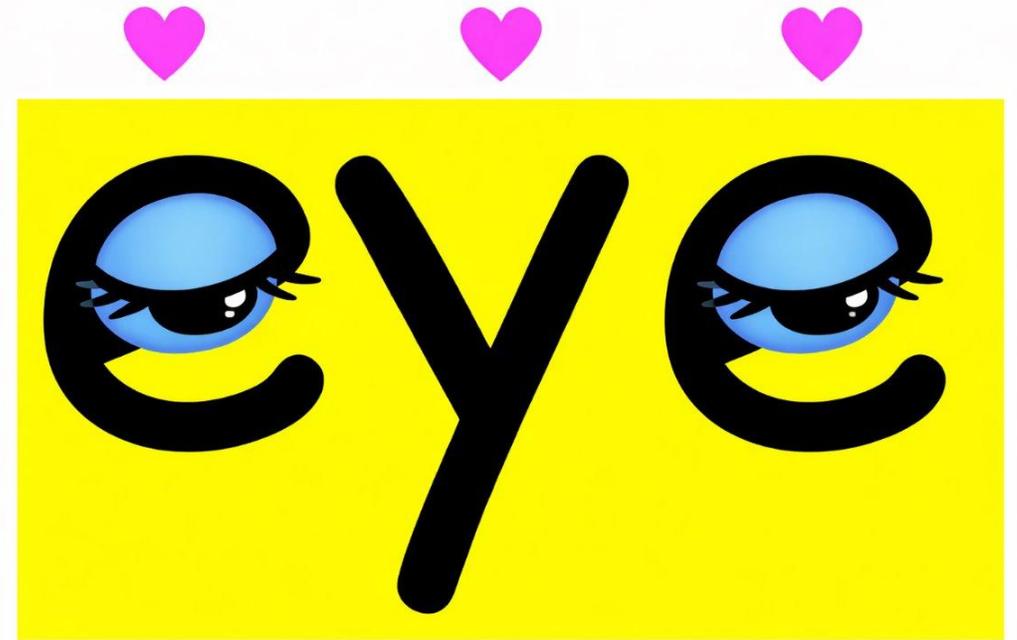

This is the word 'eye'.

If I close one eye, I am winking. If I close both eyes, I am blink

'Eye' is a homophone.

It means the part of the body we use to see.

The other spelling is 'I' which is another way of writing 'me': "I am the teacher."

e y e

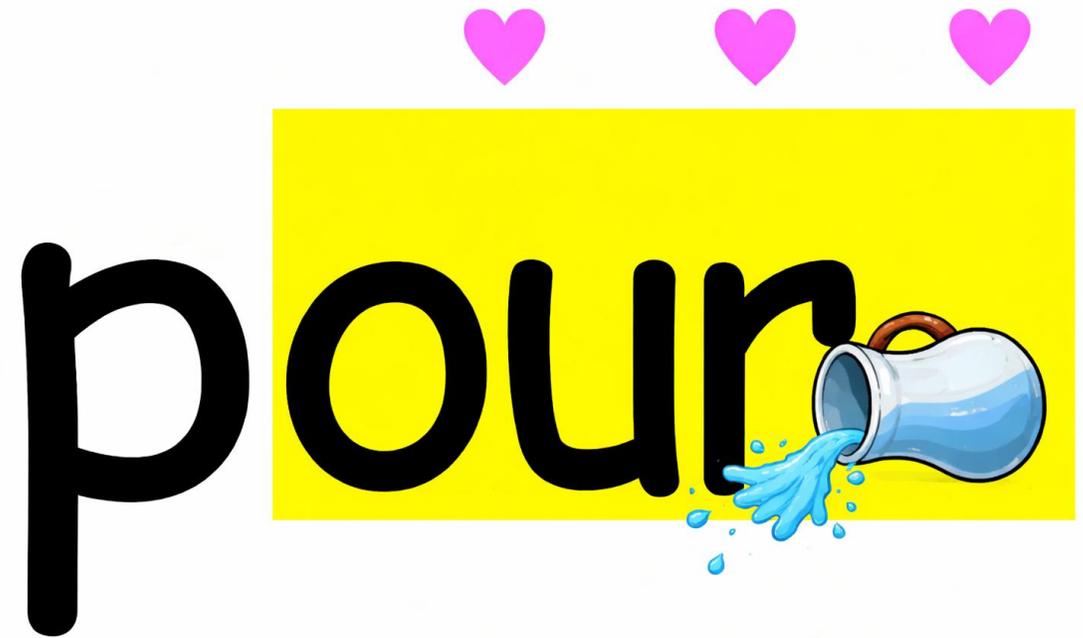

This is the word 'pour'.

"Be careful when you pour out the juice!"

'Pour' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (p) (or)

The letters 'our' together make the sound (or).

pour

This is the word 'door'.

My front door is green.

'Door' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (d) (or)

The letters 'oor' together make the sound (or).

door

d o o r

This is the word 'floor'.

The floor is slippery.

'Floor' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (l) (or)

The letters 'oor' together make the sound (or).

floor

floooor

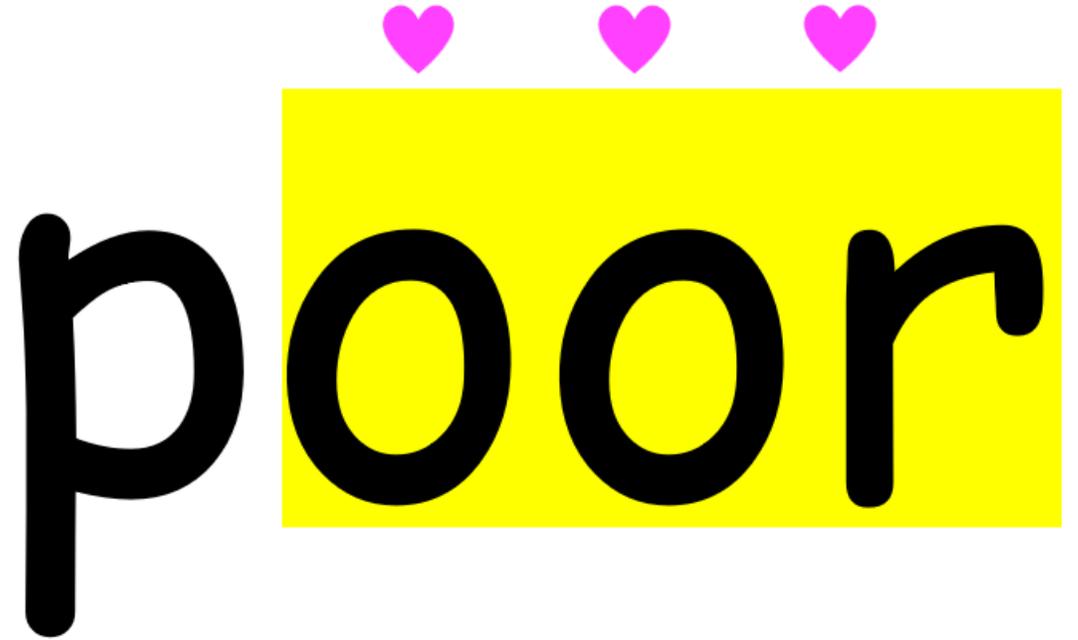

The poor kitten had a sore leg.

'Poor' can mean lacking or without.

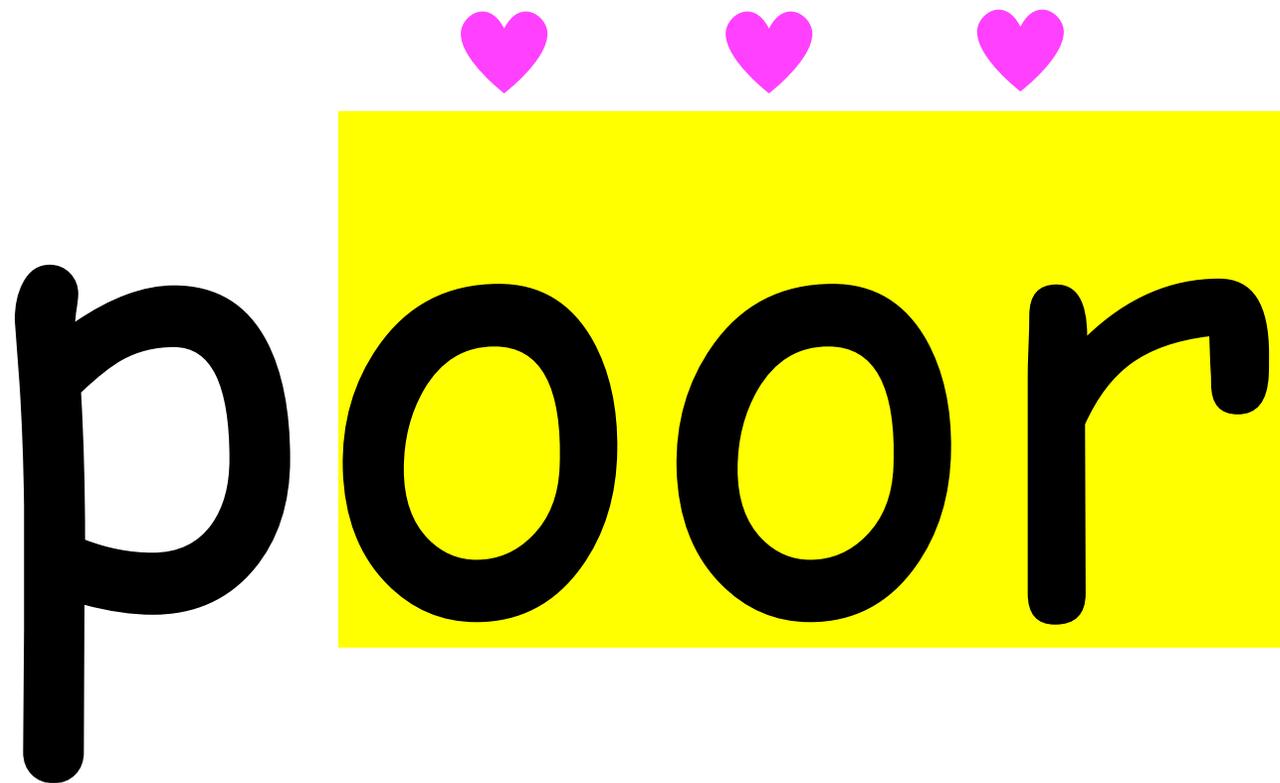

'Poor' is a homophone.

You have already learnt 'pour', like to pour out the juice.

poor

p o o r

This is the word 'both'.

Both of my parents are teachers.

'Both' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (ō) (th)

The letter 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ō).

It really should be a closed syllable with an (ö) sound!

both

böth

This is the word 'pretty'.

A pretty butterfly just flew past.

In the word 'pretty', the letter 'e' makes the sound (ĭ).

When learning to spell this word, it helps to think about it in our 'spelling voice'.

We say 'pretty' with the (ě) sound to remind us to spell it with an 'e'.

pr(ě)tty

pretty

pretty

This is the word 'build'.

You and I can build a house together.

'Build' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (ɪ) (l) (d)

The letter 'u' is silent.

build

b u i l d

'U' and 'I' can build a house together.

This is the word 'built'.

U and I built a house together.

'Built' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (ɪ) (l) (t)

The letter 'u' is silent.

built

built

'U' and 'I' built a house together.

This is the word 'animal'.

What is your favourite animal?

'Animal' has 3 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

ăn / (ə) / m(ə)l

The 'a' in first and last syllables are making the schwa sound.

When learning to spell this word it helps to say and tap it in your spelling voice in syllables: ăn / ĭ / măl

animal

animal

This is the word 'colour'.

What is your favourite colour?

'Colour' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

c ŭ l / (ə)

The letter 'o' is making the sound (ŭ) and the letters 'our' are making the schwa sound.

colour

c o l o u r

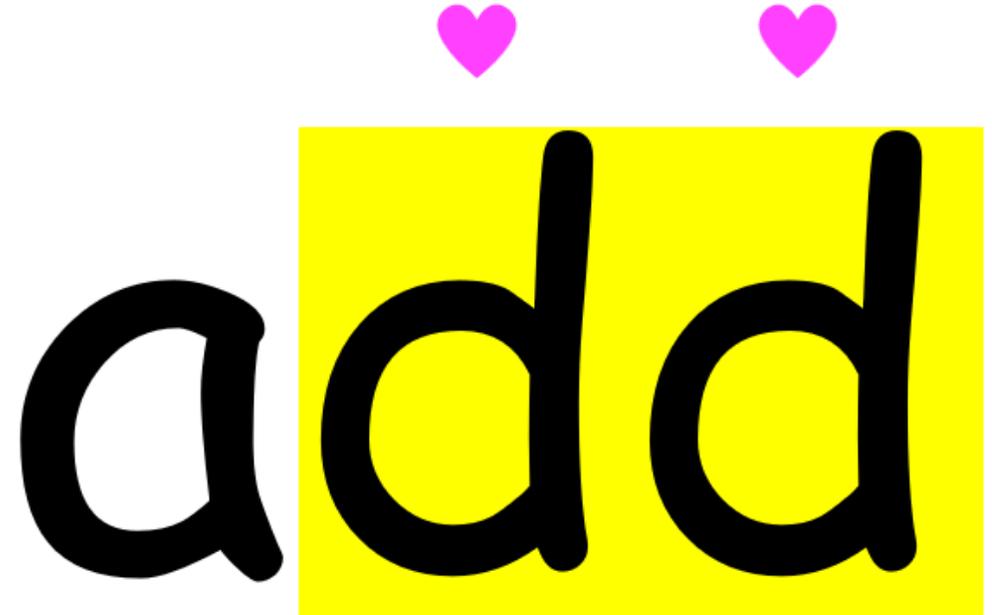

This is the word 'add'.

Can you add up your money?

'Add' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ă) (d)

There are two 'd's making the sound (d).

a d d

This is the word 'odd'.

I am wearing odd socks.

'Odd' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(ō) (d)

There are two 'd's making the sound (d).

o d d

This is the word 'steak'.

Eat bread and steak.

'Steak' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

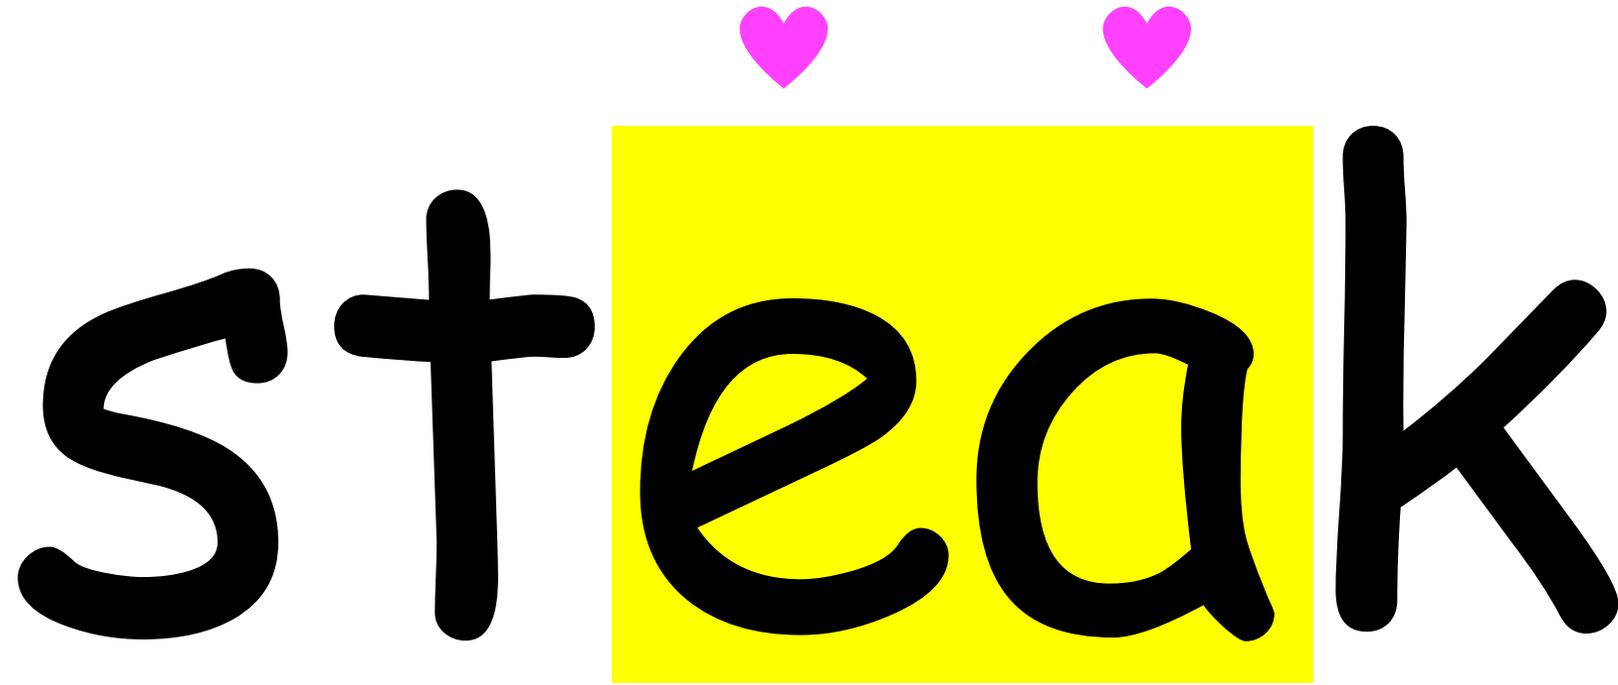

(s) (t) (ā) (k)

The letters 'ea' spell the sound (ā).

There's a saying that helps you to remember the spelling of the (ā) sound...

steak

s t e a k

This is the word 'break'.

Eat steak on your break.

'Break' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(b) (r) (ā) (k)

The (ā) sound is spelt with the letters 'ea'

There's a saying that helps you to remember the spelling of the (ā) sound...

break

b r e a k

This is the word 'great'.

Eating bread and steak is great.

'Great' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(g) (r) (ā) (t)

The (ā) sound is spelt with the letters 'ea'

There's a saying that helps you to remember the spelling of the (ā) sound...

great

g r e a t

The word "great" is written in a black, rounded, cursive-style font. A bright yellow square highlights the letters "e", "a", and "t". Above the "e" and "a" are two small pink hearts. The letters "g" and "r" are positioned to the left of the yellow square.

This is the word 'answer'.

What is the answer to the question?

'Answer' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

(ah) (n) / (s) (ə)

The 'w' in the last syllable is silent.

Say this word in your spelling voice, so you don't forget to spell it with the 'w'.

an / s(w)er

answer

answer

This is the word 'buy'.

Be you, and buy what you want!

'Buy' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (ī)

The letter 'u' in the middle is silent.

The 'be (b) and you (u)' reminds us that there is a 'u' after the 'b' that is silent.

buy

buy

Be 'U', and buy what you want.

This is the word 'busy'.

The bus is busy.

'Busy' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: b ĭ z / ē

The letter 'u' in the first syllable is making the sound (ĭ).

busy

büsy

This is the word 'beauty'.

There is so much beauty in the world!

'Beauty' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me: b(ū) / t(ē)

In the first syllable, the (ū) is spelt 'eau'
because it comes from old French.

beauty

b beauty

This is the word 'false'.

If the answer is not true,
it is false.

'False' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (ǎ) (l) (s)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (ǎ), and the 'e' at the end is silent.

fǎlse

fälsä

This is the word 'fourth'.

The fourth letter of the alphabet is D.

'Fourth' is made up of 2 morphemes.

You have already learnt the first morpheme, 'four'.

Read with me: 'four' 'th'

f four th

f four th

This is the word 'flood'.

The flood waters rose very high along the river.

'Flood' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (l) (ŭ) (d)

The double 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ŭ).

flood

flood

This is the word 'blood'.

All animals have blood in their veins.

'Blood' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (l) (ŭ) (d)

The double 'o' in the middle makes the sound (ŭ).

blood

This is the word 'because'.

Big Elephants Can Always Understand Small Elephants.

'Because' is a tricky word because it has spelling patterns that are not regular.

Saying the sentence will help you remember how to spell this tricky word.

because

becausee

big elephants

can always understand small

elephants

This is the word 'triple'.

The triple ice-cream cone had three flavours.

'Triple' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me: tri / ple

Look at the first syllable tri.

Did you know that 'tri' means three?

triple

triple

Laugh At Ugly Grasshoppers.

Laugh has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (l) (ah) (f)

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'laugh'.

Read the sentence with me:

l a u g h

L a u g h a t u g l y g r a s s h o p p e r s .

I laugh

Laugh at ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'cough'.

Cough On Ugly Grasshoppers.

'Cough' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (ɔ) (f)

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'cough'.

Read with me:

cough

Cough on ugly grass hoppers.

cough

Cough on ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'minute'.

A minute is sixty seconds of time.

A minute is mī - nute.

'Minute' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: mīn / (ə)t

It helps to say this word in syllables to learn how to spell it.

mī / nute

minute

minute

This is the word 'people'.

There were lots of people at the footy game.

'People' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me: p ē / p l

The letter 'o' is silent.

For spelling, it helps to say this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

p ē / (ō) / p l

people

people

This is the word 'police'.

The police are there to help us.

'Police' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

p (ə) / l ē s

The letter 'o' is making the schwa sound and the 'i' is making the sound (ē).

For spelling, it helps to say this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

p ō / l ī s

police

police

This is the word 'very'.

I love my family very much.

'Very' has 2 syllables.

Clap the syllables with me:

v ě / r ē

The letters 'er' usually make the sound (er), but in this word, they are in separate syllables.

very

very

This is the word 'lose'.

If I lose my hat at school,
I play in the shade.

'Lose' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (l) (oo) (z)

There is only one 'o' making the sound (oo), the 's' is making the (z) sound and the 'e' on the end is silent.

It helps to remember that 'lose' has one 'o' because it has lost the other one!

lose

lose

Lose has one o

This is the word 'loose'.

My tooth is loose.

'Loose' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(l) (oo) (s)

The 'e' on the end is silent.

loose

l o o s e e

This is the word 'every'.

Brush your teeth every day.

'Every' has 2 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

ě v / r ē

The letter 'e' in the middle is silent.

It helps to say this word in your spelling
voice in syllables:

ě v / er / ē

every

every

This is the word 'else'.

Who else lives at your house?

'Else' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(ě) (l) (s)

The 'e' on the end is silent.

else

eise

This is the word 'talk'.

Babies are cute when they talk.

'Talk' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (t) (or) (k)

The letters 'al' together are making the sound (or).

Other words like 'walk' have this same pattern.

talk

talk

This is the word 'walk'.

It is healthy to walk each day.

'Walk' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (or) (k)

The letters 'al' together are making the sound (or).

Other words like talk also have this pattern.

walk

walk

This is the word 'chalk'.

Drawing on the path with chalk is fun!

'Chalk' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ch) (or) (k)

The letters 'a' and 'l' together are making the sound (or).

Other words also have this pattern, like talk and walk.

chalk

chaik

This is the word 'woman'.

One woman was swimming.

'Woman' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me:

w oo / m an

The letter 'o' is making the sound (oo).

The last syllable is 'man'.

"One man, one woman."

woman

woman

“One man, one woman.”

This is the word 'women'.

Two women were swimming.

'Women' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me:

w ĭ / m ě n

The letter 'o' is making the sound (ĭ).

The last syllable is 'men'.

"Two men, two women."

women

women

“Two men, two women.”

This is the word 'above'.

My nose is above my mouth.

'Above' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: (ă) / (b) (ă) (v)

The 'a' in the first syllable makes the sound (ă) and the 'o' in the second syllable makes the sound (ă).

Another word with this pattern is 'love'.

above

above

This is the word 'range'.

There was a huge range of toys on sale.

'Range' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(r) (ā) (n) (j)

The letter 'a' makes the sound (ā) in this word.

range

range

This is the word 'piano'.

Bill plays the piano dreadfully.

'Piano' has 3 syllables.

Clap them with me: p ē / ă n / ō

The 'i' in the first syllable makes the sound (ē).

It helps to say this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

p ī / ă n / ō

piano

piano

This is the word 'friend'.

My friend will be there.

'Friend' has 5 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (r) (ɛ) (n) (d)

The letter 'i' is silent.

There's a saying that helps you to remember the silent letter 'i'....

Don't fri the end of your friend!

friend

friend

Don't fri the end of your friend!

This is the word 'half'.

You can have half of my sandwich.

'Half' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (ah) (f)

The letters 'ai' together are making the sound (ah).

Other words like calf also have this pattern.

half

half

This is the word 'calf'.
Calf has two meanings.

Your calf is on your lower leg.
A calf is a baby cow.

'Calf' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (c) (ah) (f)

The letters 'ai' together are making the sound (ah).

'Half' also has this same pattern.

calf

calif

This is the word 'are'.

Are you OK?

'Are' has only one phoneme.

Phoneme fingers with me:
(ah)

The letter 'e' on the end is silent.

are

are

This is the word 'their'.

Someone left their lunchbox
at home.

'Their' is a homophone. The pictures help to us remember which spelling to use.

The girl in front of the letter 'i' shows ownership by a person - their lunchbox.

ther

This is the word 'halves'.

One half and one half make two halves.

'Halves' is the plural of 'half'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often change their spelling when they become plural.

halves

h ä l v e s

This is the word 'calves'.

One calf was born.
Two calves were born.

'Calves' is the plural of 'calf'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often change their spelling when they become plural.

calves

calves

This is the word 'wolf'.

The wolf was searching for food.

'Wolf' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(w) (oo) (l) (f)

The letters 'o' is making the sound (oo).

w^ol^of

wolf

This is the word 'wolves'.

One wolf was searching for food.
Two wolves were searching for food.

'Wolves' is the plural of 'wolf'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often change their spelling when they become plural.

wolves

wolves

This is the word 'move'.

I had to move to a new school when I moved house.

'Move' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(m) (oo) (v)

There is only one 'o' making the sound
(oo) and the 'e' on the end is silent.

move

move

This is the word 'prove'.

The girl wanted to prove that she was brave.

'Prove' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(p) (r) (oo) (v)

There is only one 'o' making the sound (oo) and the 'e' on the end is silent.

prove

prove

This is the word 'heart'.

Judd's heart was pounding with excitement.

'Heart' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(h) (ah) (t)

The letter 'e' is silent in this word.

heart

heart

This is the word 'owe'.

I owe Dad a hug.

'Owe' has only 1 phoneme.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ō)

The letter 'e' on the end is silent.

owe

owe

Heart Words

This is the word 'heir'.

The Prince is heir to the throne.

In the word 'heir', the letter 'h' is silent.

The letters 'eir' make the sound (air).

It comes from French, where the 'h' is not usually pronounced.

Another word with the same rule is hour.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

heir

This is the word 'often'.

I often forget the 't' in often!

'Often' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: (o) (f) / (t) (en)

The 't' in the middle is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

o f / t e n

o f t e n

ofifen

This is the word 'listen'.

I listen to my teacher.

'Listen' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: (l) (i) (s) / (ə) (n)

The 't' in the middle is silent, just like in the word 'often'.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

l i s / t ə n

listen

lisiten

This is the word 'usual'.

It is usual to use your toothbrush to brush your teeth.

'Usual' comes from the base word 'use'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

usual

usual

This is the word 'usually'.

I usually eat sandwiches for lunch.

'Usually' is the word 'usual' with suffix -ly added.

For spelling, say 'usual' as tap one, and then 'l' 'y' as the next two taps.

usually usually

This is the word 'loaves'.

One loaf was baked.
Two loaves were baked.

'Loaves' is the plural of 'loaf'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often change their spelling when they become plural.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

loaves

loaves

This is the word 'hooves'.

Horses have four hooves, not one hoof.

'Hooves' is the plural of 'hoof'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often
change their spelling when they become
plural.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

hooves

hoooves

This is the word 'thieves'.

Two thieves were caught, but one thief got away.

'Thieves' is the plural of 'thief'.

Words ending in the letter 'f' often
change their spelling when they become
plural.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

thieves

thieves

This is the word 'sure'.

I am sure that my favourite colour is green.

'Sure' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (sh) (or)

'Sure' means you are certain about something.

It is also a homophone. 'Shore' is the other spelling that means the land next to the water, like at the beach.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

sure

sure

I am sure this is how you spell it!

This is the word 'sugar'.

Are you sure the sugar is sweet?

'Sugar' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: (sh) (oo) / (g) (ə)

The letter 's' is making the sound (sh), and the
'ar' is making the schwa sound.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

sugar

s u g a r

This is the word 'orange'.

Orange is a colour and orange is a fruit.

'Orange' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: ǒ / r ĭ n j

The letter 'a' is making the sound (ĭ).

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

ǒ / r ā n j

orange

orange

This is the word 'skiing'.

My family and I love skiing on the river.

'Skiing' is made up of the base word
'ski' followed by suffix -ing.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling
voice in syllables:
Ski (first tap) and -ing second tap.

skiing

skiing

This is the word 'machine'.

The ball machine was fun to use at tennis practice.

'Machine' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me.

The letters 'ch' in the middle are making the sound (sh), the 'i' is making the sound (ē), and the 'e' on the end is silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

machine

machine

This is the word 'length'.

The length of something is how long it is.

The spelling of this word comes from the word 'long'. That's why the 'g' is there!

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

length

length

This is the word 'broad'.

The swimmers' shoulders were very broad.

'Broad' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (r) (or) (d)

The letters 'oa' in the middle are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

b r o a d

brooad

This is the word 'among'.

We were playing among the trees in the park.

'Among' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: ə/mʌŋg

The 'a' makes schwa, and the 'o' makes the sound (ʊ).

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling
voice in syllables:

ăm / ɔŋg

among

aamong

This is the word 'special'.

I am getting a special dinner for my birthday.

'Special' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me.

The letters 'ci' in the second syllable are making the sound (sh).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

special

special

This is the word 'especially'.

I love lolly frogs, especially the red ones!

'Especially' is the word 'special' with prefix e- and suffix -ly added.

For spelling, say and tap 'e' 'special' 'l' 'y'
(4 taps).

especially

especiallly

This is the word 'yolk'.

Yolk gets its 'l' from yellow.

'Yolk' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (y) (ō) (k)

The letters 'l' is silent.

As you heard in the sentence, 'yolk' comes from the word 'yellow'. Yolk literally means 'the yellow part'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

yolk

yolk

This is the word 'folk'.

Folk gets its 'l' from fellow.

'Folk' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (f) (ō) (k)

The letters 'l' is silent.

As you heard in the sentence, 'folk' comes from the word 'fellow'. Both folk and fellow mean 'people'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

folk

f o i l k

This is the word 'choir'.

It sounded amazing when the choir sang the chorus.

'Choir' is related to the word chorus, even though the 'ch' at the beginning makes a different sound.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

choir

choir

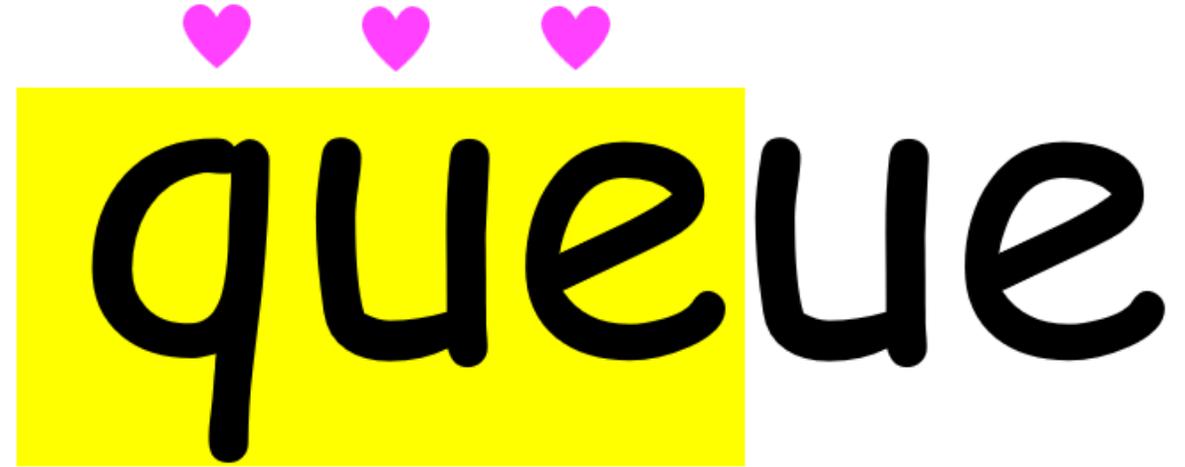

This is the word 'queue'.

The 'u's and 'e's line up behind the 'q'.

'Queue' is a French word meaning tail.
We use the word to mean a line-up of people or things waiting their turn.

It helps to remember the spelling of this word by remembering the sentence:

'The u's and e's line up behind the q.'

que que

This is the word 'guide'.

The tour guide showed us around the town.

'Guide' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (ī) (d)

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i'. If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guess and guy.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guide

guide

This is the word 'guess'.

Can you guess how many jellybeans are in the jar?

'Guess' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (ě) (s)

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i' . If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guide and guy.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guess

guess

This is the word 'guitar'.

My Uncle plays the guitar in a band.

'Guitar' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: gə / tar

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i'. If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guide and guy.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guitar

guitar

This is the word 'guard'.

There is a guard dog outside my house.

'Guard' has one syllable.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as guide, guess, guy and many other words from French and Old English.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guard

guard

This is the word 'guy'.

The guy in the movie was hilarious.

'Guy' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (g) (ī)

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i'. If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guide and guess.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guy

guy

This is the word 'honest'.

Always tell the truth and be honest.

In the word 'honest', the letter 'h' is silent.

It comes from French, where the 'h' is not usually pronounced. Other words that have the same rule include hour and heir.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice:

(h)ōnest with the (h) sound

honest

honest

This is the word 'though'.

Think of ugly grass hoppers.

'Though' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (th) (ō)

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'though'.

Read the sentence with me:

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

though

Think of ugly grass hoppers.

though

Think of ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'although'.

Always think of ugly grass hoppers.

'Although' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: al / th ō

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'although'.

'Although' is made up of the base word 'though' and the prefix 'al-'.

For spelling, say and tap:
'ā' 'l' 'though' (3 taps).

although

Always Think of ugly grass hoppers.

although

Always think of ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'court'.
Court has two meanings.

A judge sits at the front of the court.
The tennis court is very hot.

'Court' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (or) (t)

The letters 'our' in the middle are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

court

court

This is the word 'course'.
Course has two meanings.

Mum is doing a dog clipping course.
The golf course was long and hard.

'Course' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (or) (s)

The letters 'our' in the middle are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

course

cOURSE

This is the word 'tough'.

Travelling on ugly grass hoppers.

'Tough' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (t) (ʊ) (f)

The 'ou' is spelling the sound (ʊ), and the 'gh' is spelling (f) just like in rough and enough.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'tough'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

tough

Travelling on ugly grass hoppers.

tough

Travelling on ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'rough'.

It's a rough ride on ugly grass hoppers.

'Rough' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (r) (ʊ) (f)

The 'ou' is spelling the sound (ʊ), and the 'gh' is spelling (f) just like in tough and
enough.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'rough'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

rough

It's a rough

ride

on ugly

grass hoppers.

rough

It's a rough ride on ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'enough'.

Everyone nibbles on ugly grass hoppers.

'Enough' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ē) (n) (ŭ) (f)

The 'ou' is spelling the sound (ŭ), and the
'gh' is spelling (f) just like in tough and
rough.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling
of the word 'enough'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

enough

Everyone nibbles on ugly grass hoppers.

enough

Everyone nibbles on ugly grasshoppers.

Heart Words

This is the word 'through'.

I go through only ugly grass hoppers.

'Through' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (th) (r) (oo)

The 'ou' is spelling the sound (oo), and the 'gh' is silent.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'through'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

through

I go through only ugly grass hoppers.

through

... only ugly grasshoppers

This is the word 'thorough'.

The filthy shirt needed a thorough wash.

'Thorough' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: th ũ / r ũ

'Thorough' has the same 'ough' spelling as many 'ugly grasshopper' words.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

thō / rough thorough

thorough

This is the word 'Adelaide'.

Adelaide is the best city in Australia!

'Adelaide' is a proper noun and has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: ə d / ə l / ə d

The 'e' on the end of the final syllable is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

əd / əl / 'a' 'i' 'd' 'e'

Adelaide

Adelaidē

This is the word 'Australia'.

The capital city of Australia is Canberra.

'Australia' is a proper noun and has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: ă / strā / lē / ũ

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

(or) /strā /lī /ă

Australia

Australia

This is the word 'library'.

I love to visit my local library.

'Library' can be pronounced with 2 syllables.

Clap with me: l ī / br ē

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

Remember, make the 'r' and 'a' louder!

library

library

This is the word 'diary'.

Every week I get my parents to sign my school diary.

'Diary' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: d ī / r ē

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.
Remember, make the 'a' louder!

diary

diary

This is the word 'height'.

The bird flew to a great height.

'Height' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (h) (ī) (t)

The 'e' in this word is silent.

A statement to help you remember the 'e' is:

'He has height.'

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

height

height

'He has height.'

This is the word 'guilty'.

My puppy looked guilty after he ate my sock!

'Guilty' has 2 syllables. Clap with me.

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i'. If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guide and guess.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

guilty

guilty

This is the word 'palm'.
Palm has two meanings.

I hold things in the palm of my hand.
The palm tree was very tall.

'Palm' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (p) (ah) (m)

The letter 'l' is silent.

Other words with the same pattern include calm and balm.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

p a l m

palm

This is the word 'calm'.

When I am calm, I make better decisions.

'Calm' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (k) (ah) (m)

The letter 'l' is silent.

Other words with the same pattern include palm and balm.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

calm

calm

This is the word 'straight'.

The road was straight and long.

'Straight' has 5 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(s) (t) (r) (ā) (t)

The letters 'aigh' make the sound (ā).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

straight

straight

This is the word 'island'.

An island is land surrounded by water.

'Island' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: ī / land

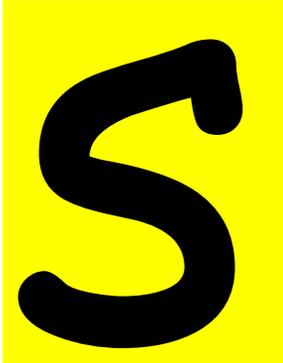

The letter 's' is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your
spelling voice and syllables:

īs / lānd

island

i   sland

This is the word 'Wednesday'.

It is a proper noun.

Wednesday is in the middle of the week.

'Wednesday' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: Wěns / day

'Wednesday' is spelt differently because it was named after the Germanic God 'Woden'.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your
spelling voice and syllables:

W ě d / n ě s / day

Wednes[♥][♥][♥]day

Wednesday

This is the word 'February'.

It is a proper noun.

February is the second month of the year.

'February' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: Fěb / ū / air / ē

The letter 'r' in this word is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice and syllables:

F ě b / r ū / ary

February

February

This is the word 'yacht'.

It is fun to sail on a yacht.

'Yacht' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (y) (ö) (t)

'Yacht' is spelt differently because it comes from the Dutch word 'jacht', which means a fast boat.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

yacht

yacht

This is the word 'biscuit'.

Grandpa made me a chocolate chip biscuit.

'Biscuit' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: b ĭ s / k ə t

'Biscuit' has a different spelling because it comes from the Old French word 'biscuit, which means 'twice cooked'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

biscuit

two or twice

biscuit

This is the word 'tongue'.

It is rude to stick out your tongue.

'Tongue' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (t) (ŭ) (ng)

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of syllables and letter names:

tŏn - 'g' 'u' 'e'

tongue

tongue

This is the word 'forfeit'.

We had to forfeit the game.

'Forfeit' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me:
for / fĭt

The 'e' in the last syllable is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice:

for / f ē / ĭt

forfeit

forfeit

This is the word 'quarter'.

It is quarter time, so there are three quarters to go.

'Quarter' has 2 syllables.

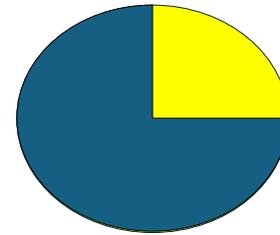

Clap with me: Kwor / ter

In this word, the letters 'ar' are making the sound (or).

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of syllables and letter names:

'q' 'u' 'a' 'r' - ter

quarter

quar^{♥♥}ter

This is the word 'war'.

In History, we are learning about the Second World War.

'War' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:
(w) (or)

In this word, the letters 'ar' are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

war

wär

This is the word 'cupboard'.

There was nothing in the cupboard to eat.

'Cupboard' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me.

The word 'cupboard' comes from the two words 'cup' and 'board', which originally meant a board where cups are kept.

Over time, the pronunciation changed, and the 'p' became silent.

For spelling, say and tap the 2 separate words:

c ŭ p / board

cupboard

cupboard

This is the word 'language'.

Can you speak any other language?

'Language' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: lang / wĭj

The letter 'u' in the middle is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your
spelling voice in syllables:

lang / ū / age

language

language

This is the word 'laughter'.

Laugh at ugly grass hoppers.

'Laughter' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: larf / ter

You already know how to spell 'laugh'

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'laugh'.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

laugh / ter

laughter

Laugh at ugly grass hoppers.

laughter

Laugh at ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'water'.

My new water bottle is leaking!

'Water' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me:
wor / ter

In this word, the letter 'a' is making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

water

w[♥]ater

This is the word 'warn'.

I need to warn my friends that the bell is about to go!

'Warn' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (or) (n)

In this word, the letters 'ar' are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

warn

warn

This is the word 'warm'.

I enjoy the warm weather in summer.

'Warm' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (or) (m)

In this word, the letters 'ar' are making the sound (or).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

warm

wärm

This is the word 'kangaroo'.

The kangaroo had a joey in her pouch.

'Kangaroo' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: kang / ə / roo

The 'a' in the middle is making the schwa sound.

This word doesn't follow the 'k-rule' because it is an Australian Aboriginal word.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in syllables:

kang / ar / oo

kangaroo

kangaroo

This is the word 'axe'.

The woodcutter used an axe to cut down the tree.

'Axe' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (ă) (ks)

The letter 'e' is silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

axe

This is the word 'Asia'.

Asia is a proper noun.

Asia is the world's largest and most populous continent.

'Asia' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

Asia

A  sia

This is the word 'Asian'.

China and India are large Asian countries.

'Asian' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

Asian

Asian

This is the word 'bough'.

Bunches of ugly grass hoppers.

'Bough' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (b) (ow)

'Bough' is another word with a grasshopper spelling. The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'through'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

Bunches of ugly grass hoppers.

bough

Bunches of ugly grasshoppers.

This is the word 'circuit'.
'Circuit' has two meanings.

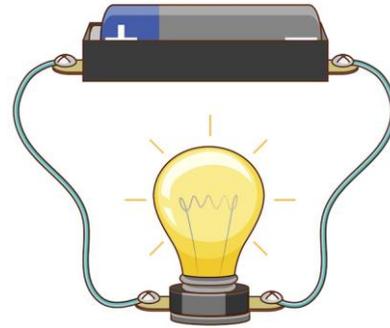

An electrical circuit.
I do a circuit of the racetrack.

'Circuit' has 2 syllables.

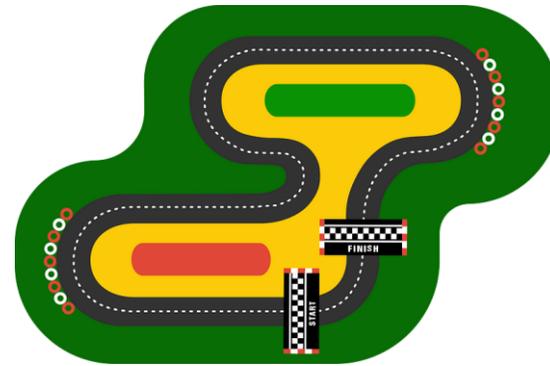

Clap with me: c ir / c ə t

The letters 'ui' are making a schwa sound.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

circuit

circuit

This is the word 'injure'.

The fall didn't injure the dog.

'Injure' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: ĩn / j ə

The 'ure' is making a schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

ĩn / 'j' 'u' 'r' 'e'

injure

injure

This is the word 'cushion'.

I have four cushions on my bed.

'Cushion' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: c (oo) sh / ə n

The letters 'io' in the last syllable make the schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

cush / 'i' 'o' 'n'

cushion

cushion

This is the word 'fashion'.

My Gran always keeps up with the latest fashion.

'Fashion' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: f ă sh / ə n

The letters 'io' in the last syllable make the schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

fash / 'i' 'o' 'n'

fashion

fashion

This is the word 'weird'.

My tummy felt weird after eating a gigantic piece of cake!

'Weird' has 3 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: (w) (ear) (d)

The letters 'eir' are making the sound (ear).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

w  d

weird

♥ ♥ ♥

This is the word 'aeroplane'.

The aeroplane took off at great speed.

'Aeroplane' is a compound word.

It is made up of combining:

'aero' (meaning air) with 'plane'.

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

'a' 'e' 'r' 'o' / plane

aeroplane

aeroplane

This is the word 'patient'.
Patient has two meanings.

The patient lays in the hospital bed.
John is patient with his brother.

'Patient' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: p ā / shent

The letters 'ti' are making the sound (sh).

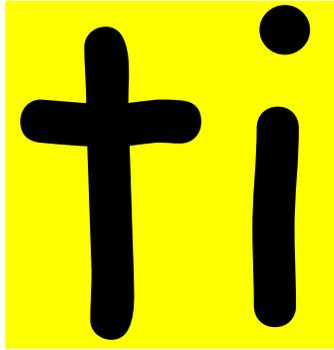

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

patient

patient

This is the word 'against'.

They are playing against us, again.

'Against' has the base word 'again' followed by 'st'.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling of the word 'against'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

against

They are playing against us, again.

against

They are playing against us, again.

This is the word 'favourite'.

Our favourite colour is green.

'Favourite' has the base word 'favour'
followed by suffix -ite.

The sentence can help us remember that the word 'our' is in the spelling.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

favourite

Our favourite colour is green.

favourite

Our favourite colour is green.

This is the word 'strength'.

The strength of something is how strong it is.

The spelling of this word comes from the word 'strong'. That's why the 'g' is there!

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

strength

strength

This is the word 'difficult'.

The sum was difficult, but I solved it!

'Difficult' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: d ĭ f / ɪ / c ə l t

It is difficult to remember that there is a double 'f', and the letter 'u' is making the schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

d ĭ f / f ĭ c / ŭ l t

difficult

difficult

This is the word 'certain'.

You are certain to get wet if you play in the rain.

'Certain' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: cer / t ə n

The 'ai' in the last syllable is making a schwa sound.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

certain

cert^{ain}

This is the word 'shoulder'.

You should use your shoulder to move
the boulder!

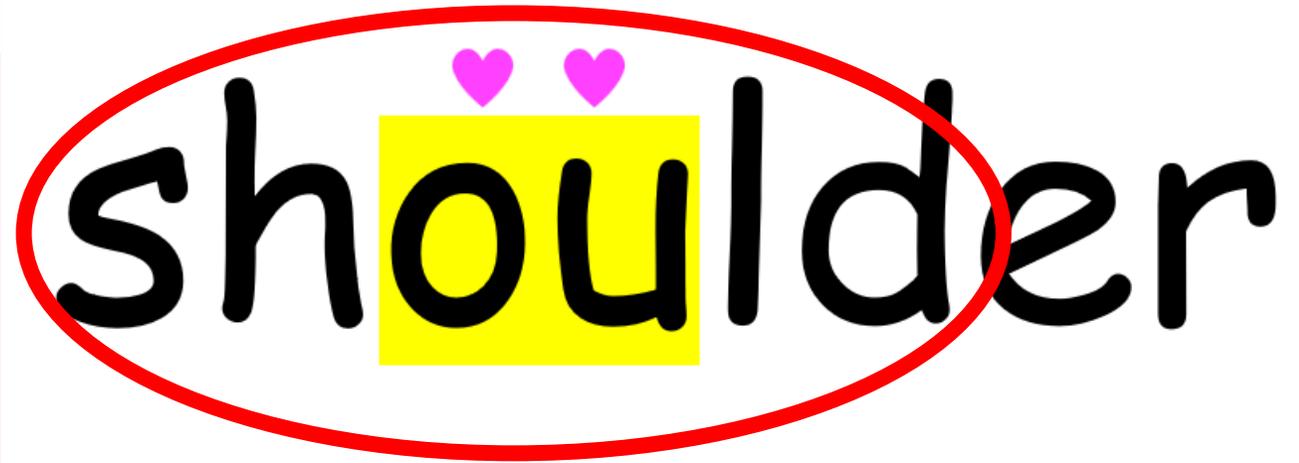

'Shoulder' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: sh ōl / der

We pronounce the letters 'ou' as ō.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

shoulder

You should use your shoulder to move the boulder!

shoullder

This is the word 'boulder'.

You should use your shoulder to move
the boulder!

'Boulder' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: b ōl / der

We pronounce the letters 'ou' as ō.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

You should use your shoulder to move the boulder!

böulder

This is the word 'senior'.

Work gets more difficult in the senior school.

'Senior' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: s ē n / y ə

We pronounce the 'ior' in the last syllable y ə.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

senior

senior

This is the word 'junior'.

I play in the junior basketball league.

'Junior' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: j ū n / y ə

We pronounce the 'ior' in the last syllable y ə.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

junior

junior

This is the word 'iron'.
Iron has two meanings.

Dad taught me how to iron my clothes.
The beam was made of iron.

'Iron' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: ī / ən

The letter 'r' in the second syllable is silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

i  iron

i r o n

This is the word 'onion'.

The word 'one' is hiding inside the onion.

'Onion' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: ŏ n / y ə n

The word 'onion' is the base word 'one' with suffix -ion added.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

onion

onion

The word 'one' is hiding inside the onion.

This is the word 'aisle'.

I like to go down every aisle at the supermarket.

'Aisle' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: $\bar{\imath}$ / \eth |

The word 'aisle' comes from Old French. The letters 'a' and 's' are silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

The word 'aisle' is written in a large, black, rounded font. The letters 'a' and 's' are highlighted with yellow rectangular backgrounds. Above the 'a' and 's' are pink hearts. Above the 'i' is a black dot. The 'l' and 'e' are in the standard black font.

aisle

This is the word 'isle'.

Isle means 'island'.

'Isle' has 2 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me: ī / ə l

The letter 's' is silent.

'Isle' sounds like 'aisle' and is also from Old French.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

isle

i s l e

Heart Words

This is the word 'anxious'.

I was anxious on my first day of school.

'Anxious' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me:
ăng / shəs

The letters 'xi' are pronounced (sh).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

anxious

anxious

This is the word 'anxiety'.

My anxiety was high on Grand Final day.

'Anxiety' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me:

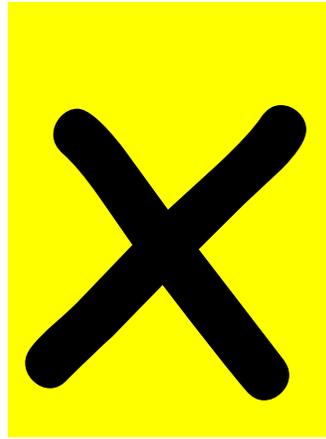

ăng / zī / ət / ē

The letter 'x' is pronounced (gz) in this word.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

anxiety

anxiety

This is the word 'necessary'.

It is necessary to have one collar and two sleeves on your shirt.

'Necessary' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me. nə / cə / s(air) / ē

The sentence helps us to remember that 'necessary' is spelt with one 'c' and two 's's.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice and syllables:

nĕc / ěss / ăry

necessary

It is necessary to have one collar and two sleeves on your shirt.

ne[♥]cess[♥]ary

It is necessary to have one collar and two sleeves on your shirt.

This is the word 'America'.
'America' is a proper noun.

America has fifty states.

'America' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: ǔ / mĕr / ǐ / cə

The 'A' in the first syllable makes the sound (ǔ), and the 'a' at the end makes the schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice and syllables:

Ā / mer / ǐ / c ə

America

America

This is the word 'million'.

Millionaires have more than one million dollars.

'Million' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: m ĭ l / l ē / ə n

The letters 'io' make the sound (ə) with a schwa.

'Billion' has the same spelling pattern and pronunciation.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

million

million

This is the word 'billion'.

One billion is one thousand million.

'Billion' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: b ĭ l / l ē / ə n

The letters 'io' make the sound (ə) with a schwa.

'Million' has the same spelling pattern and pronunciation.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

billion

billion

This is the word 'Celsius'.

In Australia, temperature is measured in Celsius.

Celsius is a proper noun (named after Anders Celsius, a Swedish scientist).

'Celsius' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: c ě l / s ǐ / ə s

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables:

c ě l / s ǐ / ə s

 Celsius

Ceelsius

This is the word 'vacuum'.

Every week I vacuum my room.

'Vacuum' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: v ä c / ū m

There are two 'u's in this word because it comes from the Latin word 'vacuus', which means 'empty'.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice and syllables:

v ä c / 'u' 'u' 'm'

vacuum

vacuum

This is the word 'guarantee'.

The guard will guarantee your safety.

'Guarantee' has 3 syllables.

Clap them out with me: g ă r / ə n / t ē

The letter 'u' in the first syllable follows the same spelling pattern 'gu' as many other words from French and Old English such as guess and guy.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice in a mixture of letter names and syllables:

'g' 'u' 'a' 'r' / ə n / t ē

guaranteeee

guarantee

This is the word 'restaurant'.

On my birthday, I go to my favourite restaurant.

'Restaurant' is sometimes pronounced with 2 syllables like this:

rest / rŏnt

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice, in syllables:

rest / or / rǎnt

restaurant

restaaurant

This is the word 'recipe'.

My brownie recipe is the best.

'Recipe' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: res / ə / p ē

'Recipe' doesn't sound exactly how it is spelt.

It comes from Latin 'recipere' (meaning: to take).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

recipe

recipe

This is the word 'scissors'.

The 'c' in scissors comes from 'cut'.

'Scissors' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: sǐ / z er z

'Scissors' doesn't sound exactly how it is spelt. It comes from Latin (scindere, then cisoria, meaning: cutting tool).

The sentence helps us to remember the 'c' in scissors.

For spelling, say and tap this word in your spelling voice, in syllables:

s(k)ǐs / s(or)s

s*ci*ssors

s*c*i*ss*ors

This is the word 'soldier'.

My Grandpa was a soldier in the army.

'Soldier' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: sol / jə

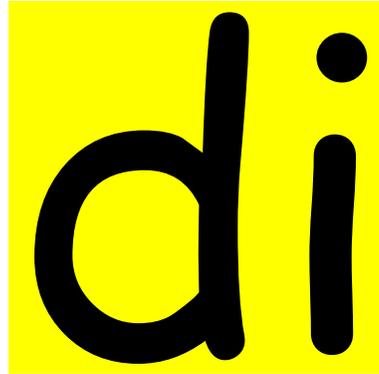

The letter 'd' makes the sound (j) and the letter
'i' is silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

soldier

soldier

This is the word 'sergeant'.

A sergeant serves in the army.

'Sergeant' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: s (ar) / (j)ənt

'Sergeant' doesn't sound exactly how it is spelt. It comes from Old French (Sergeant meaning: servant or officer).

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

's' 'e' 'r' 'g' 'e' / ənt

sergeant

s  e  r g  e  a n t

A  sergeant  serves in the army.

This is the word 'lieutenant'.

A lieutenant is a leader in the army or navy.

'Lieutenant' is made up of the French words:

- 'lieu' (place)
- 'tenant' (holding).

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

'l' 'i' 'e' 'u' / tĕn / änt

lieutenant

lieutenant

This is the word 'colonel'.

A colonel is a high-ranking officer in the army.

'Colonel' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: ker / nəl

'Colonel' doesn't sound how it is spelt.

It comes from Italian 'colonnello': (leader of a column of soldiers), with the pronunciation changing to the French, kernel.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

'l' 'i' 'e' 'u' / tən / ənt

colonel colone!

This is the word 'bureau'.
Bureau has two meanings.

She put the letters on the bureau (desk).
The weather bureau studies the weather (an organisation that does important work).

'Bureau' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: b ū / r ō

The spelling of 'bureau' comes from French, meaning; desk covered in rough cloth.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

bureau

bureau

This is the word 'nuisance'.

The loud noise was a nuisance.

'Nuisance' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: n ū / s ə ns

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

'n' 'u' 'i' / sǎnce

♥
nuisance

nuiisance

This is the word 'foreign'.

Foreign means from another country.
Kate was speaking a foreign language.

'Foreign' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: f ö r / ə n

The word 'foreign' comes from Old French, which is ironic because French is a foreign language!

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

för / 'e' 'i' 'g' 'n'

foreign

foreign

This is the word 'spaghetti'.

Every Sunday, my family feasts on spaghetti!

'Spaghetti' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: spăg / ět / ě

The word 'spaghetti' comes from Italian and keeps the Italian spelling rule where the 'h' protects the 'g' from the 'e' so it can keep its hard (g) sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

spăg / hět / tĭ

spaghetti

spagh[♥][♥]etti

This is the word 'chocolate'.

Chocolate is delicious!

'Chocolate' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: chōc / lət

The word 'chocolate' comes from Spanish.

We don't pronounce the 'o' in the middle.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

chōc / ō / late chocolate

chocol[♥]ate

This is the word 'region'.

The Barossa Valley is a region of South Australia.

'Region' is made up of:

The root -reg- (Latin), meaning; to rule

The suffix -ion, meaning; act of or state of

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

region

region

This is the word 'career'.

Caitlin wants a career as a teacher.

'Career' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: cə / rear

The letters 'eer' make the sound (ear).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

career

career

This is the word 'business'.

Business comes from busy.

'Business' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: b ĭ z / n ə s s

'Business' is made up of:

the base -busy- (doing lots of things) and . . .

the suffix -ness (state of)

For spelling, say and tap the morphemes:

busy / ness

business

business

This is the word 'campaign'.

The school ran a campaign to keep the playground clean.

'Campaign' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: cām / pān

The letter 'g' is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

cām / 'p' 'a' 'i' 'g' 'n'

campaign

campaign

This is the word 'orchestra'.

I love hearing the orchestra play at the theatre.

'Orchestra' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: or / kĕst / r ə

The 'ch' in the middle syllable is making the sound (k) and the 'a' at the end is making a schwa sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

or / chĕst / ră

orchestra

orchestra

This is the word 'company'.
Company has two meanings.

Originally, 'company' meant people who share bread together in a group.
It can also mean a business.

'Company' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: kŭm / pə / nē

The first syllable is prefix com- (with or together).

The second syllable is base -pan- (bread).

The last syllable is suffix -y (noun ending).

For spelling, say and tap the morphemes:
com / pan / y

company

company

This is the word 'appreciate'.

I appreciate everything that my family does for me.

'Appreciate' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: ap / prē / shē / āt

The 'c' in the third syllable is making the sound (sh) because of the letter 'i' that comes after it.

For spelling, say and tap in syllables:
ap / prē / ci / ate appreciate

appreciate

This is the word 'familiar'.

Does this song sound familiar?

'Familiar' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me:

fă / mīl / yə

For spelling, say and tap in syllables:

fă / mīl / ɪ / ar familiar

familiar

This is the word 'breathe'.

I breathe deeply when I meditate.

'Breathe' has 4 phonemes.

Phoneme fingers with me:

(b) (r) (ē) (th)

The letter 'e' on the end is silent.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

breathe

brea[♥]th[♥]e[♥]

This is the word 'sufficient'.

I can make the cake if I am given sufficient time.

'Sufficient' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: sə / fɪ / shənt

The letters 'ci' are making the sound (sh).

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of
letter names and syllables:

suf / fɪ / 'c' 'i' 'e' 'n' 't'

sufficient

sufficient

This is the word 'cemetery'.

We walked quietly through the cemetery.

'Cemetery' has 4 syllables.

Clap them out with me:

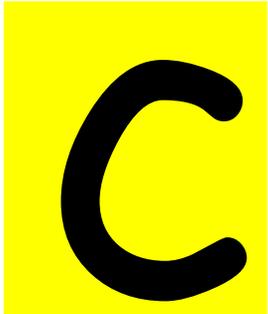

sĕm / ə / tair / rē

The letter 'c' is making the sound (s) because it is before the letter 'e'.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your
spelling voice:

cem / ět / ěry cemetery

 cemetery

This is the word 'exhibition'.

Our class visited an art exhibition.

'Exhibition' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: ĕx / ə / bĭ / shn

The letter 'h' is silent.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

ex / hĭ / bĭ / tion

exhibition

exhibition

This is the word 'apparatus'.

The science apparatus is on the table.

'Apparatus' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me: ăp / pə / rar / təs

The letter 'ar' in second syllable is making a schwa sound and the 'a' in the third syllable is making the sound (ar).

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

ăp / par / ā / tus

apparatus

apparatus

This is the word 'mortgage'.

A mortgage helps people buy a house when they don't have all the money yet.

'Mortgage' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: mor / gij

The letter 't' is silent in this word because it comes from French: -mort-, meaning 'dead' and -gage-, meaning 'promise'.

It meant that the promise was dead (finished) once borrowed money had been repaid.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

mort / gage

mortgage

mortgage

This is the word 'exaggerate'.

I've told you a million times not to exaggerate!

Exaggerate' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me:

ěgs / ăj / ə / rate

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

ěx / ăg / ger / ate

exaggerate

exagggerate

This is the word 'disguise'.

The spy wore a costume as a disguise.

'Disguise' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: dis / gīz

The letter 'u' protects the g from the 'i'. If 'g' comes before 'e', 'i' or 'y', it will make the soft (j) sound.

It follows the same 'gu' spelling pattern as many other words from French and Old English, eg guide and guess.

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

dis / 'g' 'u' 'i' 's' 'e'

disguise

disguise

This is the word 'encourage'.

I encourage my sister to get out of my room!.

'Encourage' has 3 syllables.

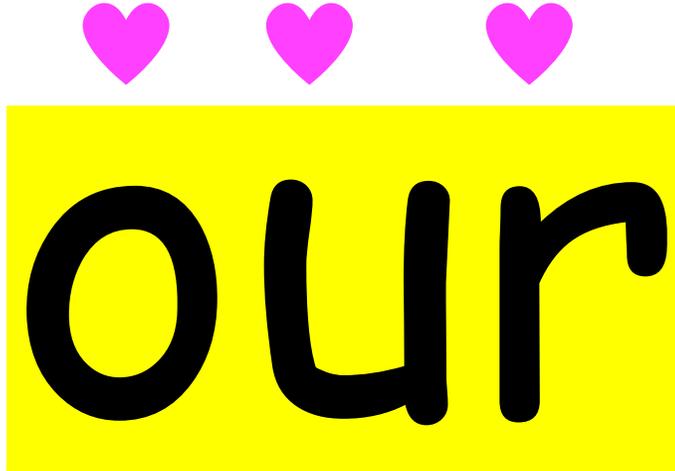

Clap with me: ěn / cŭr / ĭj

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

ěn / cour / age

encourage

encourage

This is the word 'casualty'.

The accident was minor, with no casualties.

'Casualty' has 2 morphemes.

The base is -casual-, followed by suffix ty-.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

cas / ū / ăl / ty

casualty

casualty

This is the word 'boulder'.

You should use your shoulder to move
the boulder!

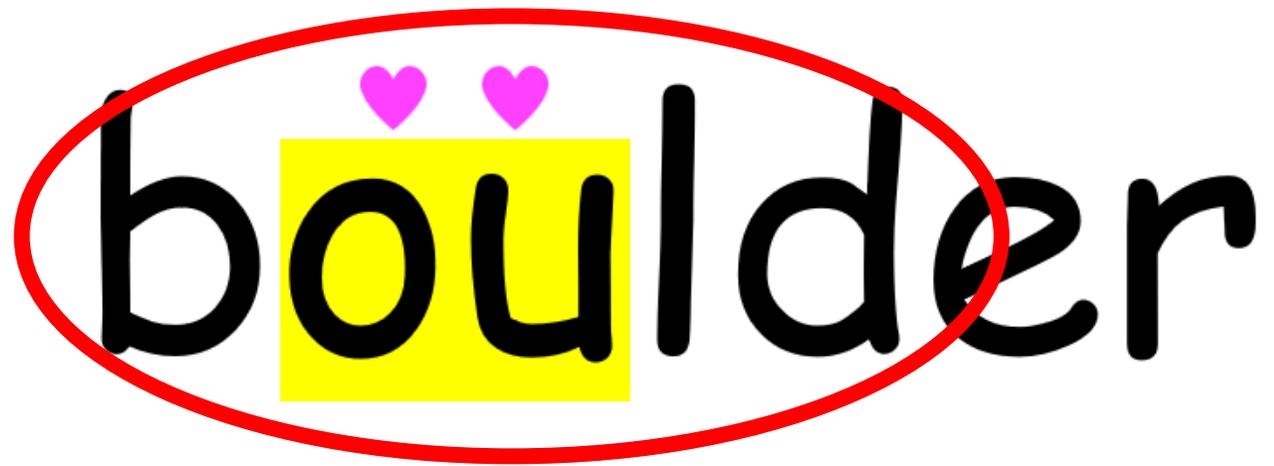

'Boulder' has 2 syllables.

Clap with me: b ōl / der

We pronounce the letters 'ou' as ō.

The sentence helps us remember the spelling.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

You should use your shoulder to move the boulder!

böulder

This is the word 'catalogue'.

I browsed the toy catalogue.

'Catalogue' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me:

cat / ə / log

The letters 'gue' make the sound (g). This spelling comes from French.

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

cat / ä / log 'u' 'e'

catalogue

catalogue

This is the word 'vaccination'.

We need vaccinations to protect us from disease.

'Vaccination' has 4 syllables.

Clap with me:

văc / cĭn / ā / tion

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables:

văc / cĭn / ā / tion

vaccination

vaccination

This is the word 'amateur'.

I am an amateur photographer who loves taking pictures.

'Amateur' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: am / ə / cher

The letters 'teur' make the sounds (cher).

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

amateur

amateur

This is the word 'conscious'.

He was still conscious and could talk after the fall.

'Conscious' is made of 3 morphemes:

con- (with or together)

-sci- (to know)

-ous (full of or having)

Conscious means; 'awake and aware of what is happening'. We pronounce it con / sh ũ s.

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

con / 's' 'c' 'i' 'o' 'u' 's'

conscious

conscious

This is the word 'conscientious'.

A conscientious person follows the rules and tries their best.

'Conscientious' is made of 4 syllables:

con / sci / ent / ious

For spelling, say and tap this word with a mixture of letter names and syllables:

con / 's' 'c' 'i' / ent / 'o' 'u' 's'

conscientious

consc^{♥♥}ientious

This is the word 'hierarchy'.

A hierarchy shows who is in charge and who is next in line. You all know who is at the top of your class hierarchy!

'Hierarchy' has 3 syllables.

Clap with me: hī / rah / kē

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:
hi / er / ar / chy

hierarchy

hierarchy

This is the word 'liaison'.

A school counsellor can act as a liaison between home and school.

'Liaison' is made of 3 syllables:

lē / ā / zŏn

Liaison comes from French.

The letter 'i' makes the sound (ē), the letters 'ai' are a vowel team and the letter 's' makes the sound (z).

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

lī / ai / sŏn

liaison

liaison

This is the word 'miniature'.

Grandpa built a miniature train set.

'Miniature' is made of 2 morphemes:

-mini- (small)

-ature (forms a noun)

'Miniature' means a small thing.

For spelling, say and tap each morpheme:

mini / ature

miniature

miniature

This is the word 'questionnaire'.

The teacher gave us a questionnaire about insects.

'Questionnaire' is made up of:

The base -question-

The suffix -naire.

For spelling, say and tap this word in parts:

question / 'n' 'a' 'i' 'r' 'e'

questionnaire

questionnaire

This is the word 'principle'.

A principle is something you believe is right and try to follow.

'Principle' is a homophone.

'Principal' is the leader of a school.

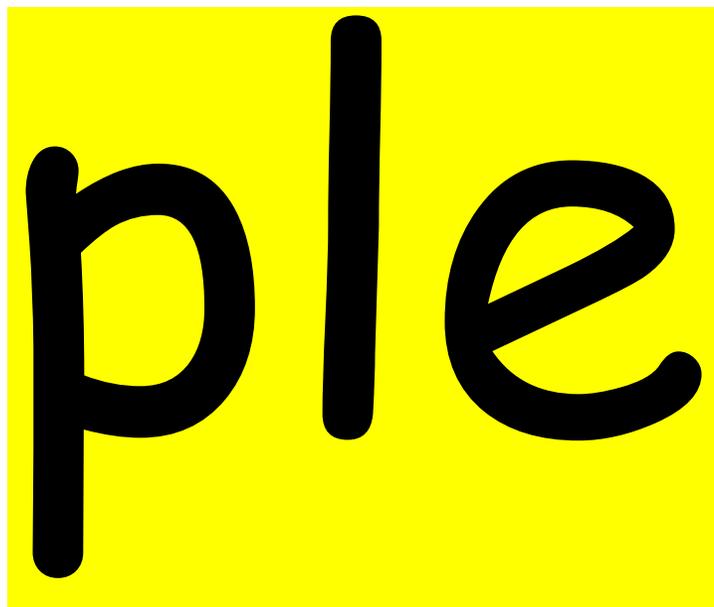

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

princ / ɪ / ple

principle

principle

This is the word 'principal' :

A principal is the leader of the school.
They are your pal.

'Principal' is a homophone.

'Principle' is something you believe is right and try to follow.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

princ / ɪ / pəl

principal

principal

This is the word 'biscuit'.

Grandpa made me a
chocolate chip biscuit.

'Biscuit' has 2 syllables.

Clap them with me: b ĭ s / k ə t

'Biscuit' has a different spelling because it comes from the Old French word 'biscuit, which means 'twice cooked'.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

biscuit

b
two or twice

biscuit

This is the word 'twelfth'.

December is the twelfth month of the year.

'Twelfth' is made up of 2 morphemes:

Twelve and suffix -th.

When the suffix -th is added to twelve, the 'v' changes to an 'f'.

This makes it easier to say.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

twelfth

twelfth

This is the word 'camouflage'.

The chameleon uses camouflage to hide.

'Camouflage' has 3 syllables:

Clap them with me.

Camouflage comes from the French camoufler, meaning to disguise or hide.

The letter 'u' is silent, and the letter 'e' is at the end, so that the 'g' will make the soft (j) sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

căm / ou / flag / ē camouflage

camouflage

This is the word 'lightning'.

Lightning flashed across the sky
in the ferocious storm.

'Lightning' has a different meaning than the word 'lightening' - making something lighter.

For spelling, say and tap in syllables :
light / ning

lightning

lightnning

This is the word 'parallel'.

The two l's in the middle are parallel.

'Parallel' has 3 syllables:

Clap with me.

The sentence helps us to remember the spelling of the word parallel.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

par / al / lel

The two 'l's in the middle are parallel.

parallel

The two l's in the middle are parallel.

This is the word 'parliament'.

The parliament makes the laws for the country.

'Parliament' has 3 syllables:

Clap with me.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

par / li / a / ment

parliament

parliament

This is the word 'peninsula'.

A peninsula is land with water on three sides,
e.g., Yorke Peninsula in South Australia.

'Peninsula' has 3 syllables:

Clap with me.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

pen / in / su / la

peninsula

peninsula

This is the word 'pharaoh'.

The pharaoh ruled ancient Egypt.

'Pharaoh' is an ancient Egyptian word meaning great house.

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

pharaoh

pharaoh

This is the word 'pigeon'.

The pigeon flew away when it heard a noise.

'Pigeon' has 2 syllables:

Clap with me.

The letter 'e' is silent but allows the 'g' to make the soft (j) sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

pig / ē / on pigeon

pigeon

This is the word 'pistachio'.

Pistachio nuts are green and delicious!

'Pistachio' has 4 syllables:

Clap with me.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

pist / ă / chĭ / ă pistachio

pistachio

This is the word 'ukulele'.

He played the ukulele in the concert with jumping flea fingers!

'Ukulele' is a Hawaiian word meaning jumping flea. To Hawaiian people, ukulele players' fingers look like jumping fleas!

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

ukulele

ukulele

This is the word 'religion'.

Many people follow a religion.

'Religion' has 3 syllables:

Clap with me.

The letter 'i' allows the 'g' to make the soft (j) sound.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

rel / ɪg / ɪ / ɒn

religion

religion

This is the word 'religious'.

They come from a religious family.

'Religious' is related to religion.

Religion is the belief.

Religious describes something about the belief.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with
your spelling voice:

rel / ĭg / ɪ / ous

religious

religious

This is the word 'salary'.

Their salary pays for all household bills.

'Salary' has 3 syllables:

Clap with me.

'Salary' comes from Latin salarium, meaning money for salt.

In Roman times, salt was very valuable.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

sal / ar / y

salary

salary

This is the word 'simile'.

"As fast as a cheetah"
is a simile.

'Simile' is made of 3 syllables:

sim / il / ē

The first syllable 'sim' is a Latin morpheme meaning same or like.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables with your spelling voice:

sim / il / ē

simile

simile

This is the word 'except'.

Everyone was ready except Sam.

'Except' is made of 2 morphemes:

Prefix ex-

Root -cept-

'Except' comes from Latin excipere (to take out).

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables:

ex / cept

except

eXcept

This is the word 'accept'.

She will gratefully accept the award.

'Accept' is made of 2 morphemes:

Prefix ac-

Root -cept-

'Accept' comes from Latin adcapere, meaning to take to yourself or agree.

For spelling, say and tap this word in syllables:

ac / cept

accept

accept

This is the word 'hooray'.

Hooray! You have reached your final heart word!

Make sure to put some enthusiasm into saying the letter names for this final word.

Congratulations!

For spelling, use letter name tapping routine.

hooray

hooray